Festival de las Posadas Will Begin Wed. Night

Orinda will celebrate its first Festival de las Posadas, the traditional Christmas celebration of Mexico, on Wednesday, from 8 to 9 p.m. in the crossroads area on Moraga Way.

The celebration is part of the Spanish Christmas which Orindians are observing this year.

Dramatizing the holy family's search for lodging, six troops of Orinda Village Girl Scouts will participate in the procession which will take place from the intersection of Moraga Way and Moraga Highway to the Christmas tree circle.

THE GIRLS, dressed as Mexican peasant children, and carrying candles, will sing four songs in Spanish, the "Marching Song" from Las Posadas, "Silent Night," "Dias de Navidad," and "La Pinata."

Several pinatas will hang near the tree in the circle and after the Nativity scene has been set in place by the two young people representing Mary and Joseph, the group will play the favorite game of Mexican children, the breaking of the pinatas by blindfolded youngsters, and the scramble for candy and favors by the rest.

Orinda merchants, Safeway, Lucky's, Black's, Orinda Drugs, Orinda Store, and Sprouse Reitz have donated candies and small prizes for the pinatas. Money was donated by the Orinda Rotary Club, Orinda Lions Club and the Chamber of Commerce to make the pinata portion of the pageant especially gay.

CONSULTANT for Las Posadas is Mrs. John Boyen, an Orinda resident who was born in Morelia, Mexico. Mrs. Boyen has staged the Festival de las Posadas for Holy Names College in Oakland.

Pine Grove School will lend the recorder and music tape the girls will use.

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce will provide the loud speaker hookup and carol music will be played all day Wednesday.

Orinda's Spanish Christmas is the project of a committee headed by Mrs. Joseph Conley consisting of three garden clubs and the Orinda Art Center. Those serving on the committee are Mesdames Phil Champion, Ralph Hickcox, Fenn Wilson, Charles Gibbs, Edward Lester, William Wilkenson, Robert Davis, Richard Funk, Howard Bell, Kenneth Renwick, James Anderson, R. Dale McBane, and Mrs. Paul Pollaczek.

TREES AND shrubs have been decorated with Mexican tin ornaments, red poinsettias and green vinyl streamers. The bus shelter displays a separate, clad Santa, and two street banners wish everyone "Feliz Navidad," the Spanish equivalent of "Merry Christmas." Each banner is augmented by a brilliant garland, but strictly ornamental, pinata.

The goodies-filled pinatas have not yet been hung. Guests from neighboring areas are welcome to attend the festival Wednesday evening and share with Orinda its first Spanish Christmas.

Commuters! Try This for Relief For That 'Hump'

Local commuters—indeed, commuters from all over the east bay—are faced with a difficult problem because of the now-famous hump on the Bay Bridge.

One answer to the continuing problem (it is expected to go on late into next year) is the formation of car pools.

The Sun, as a public service, has offered before, in times of bus strikes or commuter tie-ups, to run a service for the formation of car pools.

IT IS AGAIN prepared to do this, if commuters wish to take advantage of it. (See editorial, front page, second section.)

Starting next week, The Sun will run a list of commuters who are either willing to give rides, or who wish to accept them.

If you wish to be listed in the Sun commuter service, please write—don't phone—The Sun, 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, care of Commute editor.

If you have a ride to offer, please list time of departure and place in your community, destination and time of arrival. Also, time of departure from your destination on the return trip.

IF YOU WISH a ride, list where you may be picked up in your community, time you must arrive at your destination, and place.

For example, if you are offering a ride from Walnut Creek to downtown San Francisco, you might say: Walnut Creek, Mt. Diablo Blvd. and Main Street, 7:45 a.m. Arrive California and Montgomery 9 a.m.; leave 5 p.m.

County Awards Contract for B1 Route Clearing

Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen of Supervisorial District II announced today that the board of supervisors awarded a contract for clearing the "B-1" Route of the Bear Creek Road Relocation project to Gravell and Gravell of Fair Oaks, who submitted a bid of $13,900,000, the lowest of two bids received. The estimated cost of clearing was $21,500.

When constructed, this section of road will replace the connection between Upper Valley Road and Hampton Road (Bear Creek) which will be inundated when the Briones Reservoir is filled to capacity.

The "B-1" Route extends north from the intersection of Bear Creek Road and Briones Road and connects with the Garcia Ranch Road. Future construction will extend the route to Hampton Road.

The funds for the new road are being provided by the East Bay Municipal Utility District as part of the cost for replacing the roads to be flooded by the Briones Reservoir.

Design of the road is by the Tudor Engineering Company under the direction of Victor W. Sauer, public works director for Contra Costa County Inspection of the clearing will be performed by the public works department.

'Orinda North' Meets Opposition

County Plans Jan. Field Trip; Feb. Decision Due

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Opposition to the proposed subdivision for 185 acres known as Orinda North was represented by a solid front of Orinda residents at a public hearing held in the Hall of Records, Martinez, Tuesday night before the Contra Costa County Planning Commission.

Planning commission members, after hearing an hour and a half long session in which both opposition and proponents spoke, closed the hearing to take the problem under advisement.

COMMISSION members will take a field trip to the property early in January, and make a decision on the matter February 6.

The property involved consists of 185 acres in a transition residential agricultural district, situated south of Haciendas Del Orinda Units 1 and 2, west of Altamira, north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Considered by Orinda residents as one of the choice areas of land, a prominent and beautiful hillside, the property has evoked strong feelings on the part of residents who wish to see its natural beauty preserved.

BRUCE HOWARD appeared Tuesday night before the planners, representing the Orinda Association. He reaffirmed a report filed with the commission earlier stating the unanimous objections of the association to the proposed subdivision.

Howard requested that the applicant be required to submit a restudy or redesign of the current map, eliminating as much grading as possible to avoid a big scar on the hill. Speaking for the association, Howard expressed concern for the preservation of trees and the natural beauty of the property.

Ted Rimer, president, Hacienda Homes Improvement Association, reiterated Howard's statements, as did a representative from the Altamira Association, the Hilltop Garden Club and letters from the Orinda Beautification Committee and other groups.

Bernard Muth is owner of the property in question and the engineers are Bryan and Murphy. These are the same people who developed Warford Mesa, long considered a blight on the Orinda horizon by residents who own.

Visitor Loses Hearing Aid

A recent visitor to Orinda lost an expensive hearing aid and glasses along the roadside somewhere between Orinda and the tunnel, according to Al Winsor, chief, Orinda Fire Department.

Winsor asks that anyone finding the missing items bring same to the fire station where they will be returned to the Orinda horizon by residents who own.

Let's Explore!

A field trip to the Monterey Peninsula on December 2 and 3 gave 26 Miramonte students a chance to apply their academic disciplines outside the classroom, and to understand the interdependence of their various courses of study.

Accompanied by six faculty members, the students explored cultural, physical and historical features of the area from their week-end headquarters at the Asilomar Conference Grounds.

Art students painted and sketched, English students did creative writing, history students did research among the museums and landmarks of the Peninsula, and science students explored tide-pools and beaches, collecting biological specimens.

WORKING SIDE by side, students were able to see how various approaches to one subject could have equal significance and value. Their projects will be unified in a special display for the benefit of students and parents at Miramonte.

Participants were chosen by faculty nomination for outstanding interest shown in the departments of English, history, art, and science. Those chosen were: Peggy Harlow, Nancy Young, John Heckathorn, John Calderwood, Jan Chilton and Dave Maroney.

English faculty members were Miss Joan Clapper, department chairman, and John Sanford.

From the history department, Fred Wright, Rick Cannon, Sandy Buehler, and faculty member Mrs. Jan Johnson.

SCIENCE students participating included: Linda Liu, Pat Coffey, Mike Byer, Steve Winburn, Garry Kopp and Roger Rose, accompanied by Don Underwood, biology teacher. Art students were: Ruth Owen, Kendra Juchter, Maureen Cohan, Betty Schoppe, Dianne Moss and Lynn Bell. Jack Mack was the art teacher attending.

Mrs. Grace Glorvigen, school librarian, and Brian Cartwright, a student went with the group as coordinators.

Expenses of the trip, with the exception of bus transportation provided by the Acalanes High School District, were paid by the students and teachers. Besides visits to historical buildings and points of interest, the group attended Thurber's play, "The Male Animal" on Saturday evening at the Wharf Theatre in Monterey.

Informal seminars were held both during and after the trip to compare notes on individual findings.

FACULTY reports were that students carried out their projects with a minimum of supervision, showing remarkable resourcefulness and initiative. Said Miss Clapper, "Their cooperation and appreciation of each other's work were nothing short of inspiring."

Plans for the trip evolved from discussions among several faculty members, who felt that because students often fail to apply their learning outside a particular class situation, they need special informal guidance, such as the trip to the Peninsula provided.

The display of the group's unified efforts is expected to be ready by the first of the new year, and will be presented in the school library to the students, and to parents, through the Parents' Club and the Humanities Seminar. It will include art work, biological specimens, and examples of creative writing.

Candidate for DAR Award Chosen Here

Beverly Graham, Miramonte senior, has been chosen as the school's candidate for the "Good Citizen's Award" for 1961-62, sponsored by the California State Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Beverly, chosen from three finalists, received a pin and certificate of award, and is now eligible for further honors. She may compete with winners from nine California districts in scores on a U.S. history examination, evaluation of her school activities, and in the writing of an essay.

The winner of the state-wide competition will compete, on the basis of the essay and activities, for the National D.A.R. Good Citizen, 1962.

The three finalists at Miramonte were chosen by senior girls on the basis of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. Faculty members then selected the final candidate for the award.

Holidays Begin Tonight With Festive Jr. Program

By ANN LINCOLN and KITTY MIKA

Right about now the beauty parlors are really buzzing... with Miramonte girls getting their hair done for tonight's big Junior Prom. The boys are probably pretty busy, too, shining up their cars and getting haircuts.

Excitement last weekend centered around Miramonte's basketball tournament both Friday and Saturday nights. Friday night we lost a close game to Galileo, 23-28, and Livermore won from Pittsburg by a large margin. The Mats downed Pittsburg 51-44 Saturday night, but Galileo didn't have such good luck. The timer said the ball hadn't left the hands of No. 22 before the buzzer went off. The player's long shot turned out to be a good one, but the Galileans lost, 29-28, to the champs of the tournament, the Livermore Cowboys.

ST. STEPHEN'S hosted Miramonte at an after-game dance Friday night. Some of the many Miramonteans attending the dance were Paul Barrett, Kathy Beconcini, Judy Hopkins, Mike Rolley, Trish Hess, Harold Libbey, Mike McQuaid, Nancy Englehard, Scott Anderson, Emmy Grah, Katrina Holland, Mike Gilmore, Cindy Gravelle, Pete Boyle, Chris Combs, Candy Hackler, Jo-an Scholberg, Brad Harlan, Jake Jacobsen, Jeanette Miller, Nancy Henry, Gary Holtwick, Nancy Allen and Greg Holm.

Saturday night at Miramonte the Tournament All Stars were announced. Nobody could have possibly missed those Ipana smiles on Bobbie Williams and Mike McQuaid. By the way, all the other teams only had one player each on the All-Star team.

Many people were wondering why Linda Sears was carrying that huge paper mache nose in her purse at the tournament. Could it have belonged to our anonymous Matador?

NANCY GOEBEL and Steve Rudolph went to a St. Mary's basketball game Saturday night. Bonnie Henning and John Banks viewed the horrors of Sutro's museum in San Francisco, namely thousand-year-old feet and skulls of old mummies.

Hap Parks brought a full carload of boys up to Tahoe for the weekend. Doug Dermitt, Jay Grilli, Bob Lyman, Chris Combs, Gary McCosker and Hap skied at Heavenly on Saturday and, because of a snow storm, visited Carlton City on Sunday.

Seniors were a little upset by a certain Oriental proverb on the American problems test Friday. "We walk together with the devil..."

Steve Miller and his family are spending Christmas vacation in Hawaii this year! Merry Christmas Linnet!

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!!

Dr. Blevins to Take Seattle Appointment

The governing board of the Contra Costa Junior College District this week accepted the resignation of Dr. Charles E. Blevins, instructor in biological sciences at Contra Costa College, San Pablo, and appointed Richard A. Heckmann, 30, of Davis, as his successor.

Dr. Blevins, 37, who lives at 136 Las Vegas Road, is leaving CCC after 10 and a half years to accept an appointment in the anatomy department of the University of Washington's Medical School in Seattle. He will teach anatomy and continue his research in neuroanatomy.

DR. BLEVINS was for many years associated with CCC's registered nursing program and helped plan four teaching laboratories in the college's new life science building.

In 1957 he was one of 60 scientists in the United States to be granted a National Science Foundation fellowship, which he utilized to study gross anatomy at the University of California's Medical Center in San Francisco. He obtained his doctor's degree from the university last September.

His resignation is effective with the end of the fall term January 29, with Heckmann succeeding him on that date.

DOING FINE are the three latest additions to the William Lincoln family of 2 Kittiwake Road. The triplets, born December 8 at Merritt Hospital, bring the number of Lincoln children to an even dozen. The infants are James, David and Lynn. Dr. James B. Turre of Lafayette was attending physician.

Triplets Born To Lincolns!

There's no doubt about it — Santa will be busy at the Lincoln home this Christmas! Last year there were only nine stockings decking the mantle, however, with the arrival of triplets December 8 at Samuel Merritt Hospital in Oakland, there will be an even dozen stockings to fill!

The newcomers and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Lincoln, 2 Kittiwake Road, are all "doing fine," a hospital spokesman said today.

Born between 5:20 and 5:30 p.m., the new little Lincolns are James (5 pounds, 10 ounces), David (6 pounds, 12 ounces) and Lynn (6 pounds, 7 1/2 ounces).

On hand to welcome them home this coming week end will be their seven brothers and sisters, Ann, 17, William Jr., 14, Elizabeth, 13, Dorothy, 10, twins Barbara and Mary, 8, and John, 18 months.

The staff at Merritt Hospital all agree that the triplets are "just adorable, wonderful children," as do the delighted parents, Barbara, 49, and Lincoln, 45, a senior flight engineer.

Obituaries Mrs. Cridlan

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara Cridlan, 86, of 3593 Theron Road, Lafayette, were held Monday at the Chapel of the Valley, Lafayette. Mrs. Cridlan died Saturday after a long illness.

She was a native of Ontario, Canada, and had lived in Lafayette for several years with her daughter, Mrs. Kathryn Guppy, a teacher in the Lafayette School District.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Cridlan is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Esther J. Smith of Detroit, and six grandchildren.

Rev. Carl Thomas of Lafayette-Orinda Church officiated at the services with interment in Lafayette Cemetery. Arrangements were made by the Chapel in the Valley, Lafayette Mortuary.

Mary Nejedly

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Nejedly, mother of District Attorney John Nejedly, were held Wednesday in St. Mary's Church, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Nejedly, 88, died Sunday in a Concord hospital.

She was the widow of the late Albert Nejedly, and lived in Walnut Creek since 1950. Her residence was at 1518 Brook Street. She also leaves a daughter, Mary Theresa Leonard of Sweden.

Rosary was recited Monday at Hull's Walnut Creek Chapel.

Frank LaPlante

Funeral services for Frank L. LaPlante, 71, of 1469 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, were held Wednesday in the Pittsburg Funeral Chapel.

Mr. LaPlante, a retired carpenter and 10-year resident, died last Friday night in a Martinez hospital. He is survived by two sons, a brother and two sisters.

Drilling Causes Concern

Several moves to insure that they will have authority in the development of natural gas wells were made Tuesday by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

The supervisor's consideration followed optimistic drilling at the site of the old Clyde Hotel by a Los Angeles corporation, and a decision to advertise for bids to conduct test drilling at Buchanan Field.

On suggestion of County Administrator J. P. McBrien, the supervisors passed a resolution opposing any public utilities commission control of gas at wellheads and any moves which might adversely affect the marketing of gas from drilling on county land.

They authorized attendance at the PUC's three-day natural gas hearings this week in San Francisco by Supervisor Tom Coll, John Hansen of the public works department and E. F. Wanaka, assistant county assessor.

Preliminary specifications for the Buchanan Field test drilling, to be used in calling for bids, were also adopted by the supervisors.

Hansen told the supervisors Tuesday that he had consulted with Trico Oil Company which had earlier asked for rights to conduct test drillings at the airport.

"They offered the county one-seventh of the gross sales if they were successful, compared with one-eighth which has been offered to other land owners by other companies," said Hansen.

Alameda County Supervisors OK Transit Plans

The proposed Bay Area Rapid Transit system was approved for submission to the Alameda County voters by the Alameda County supervisors, this week.

The plans for a $939,000,000 transit system must also be approved by the Contra Costa supervisors and boards of San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

If engineers decide the Golden Gate Bridge can carry transit trains, the Marin County supervisors will also be involved.

The election has been set for June 5. Supervisors of each county in the system must approve the plans well in advance.

IBM 'Brain' Will Need Programmers

Three senior data processors will be needed on the Contra Costa administrative staff to assist programming for the giant IBM "brain" which will go into operation next summer.

County Auditor-Controller Harold McNamer told supervisors the county has had difficulty recruiting program trainees and has fallen behind schedule.

If the county is not ready to use the machine when it is installed, it will be paying $10,000 a month without any benefits from the use of the machine, McNamer said.

WC's Nativity Scene Stands; Furor in Marin

The nativity scene stands silently in front of the Walnut Creek city hall, despite protests that the U.S. Constitution's provision for separation of church and state is violated, but the issue has also been raised in Marin County.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors Monday received a letter suggesting that it obtain legal opinion before allowing the nativity scene to be installed on the San Rafael courthouse lawn.

The letter was written by Milen Dempster, chairman of the Marin County Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union.

Dempster cited the U.S. Constitution and Article 4, Section 30, of the California Constitution.

The matter was referred to the Marin County counsel, but at the same time, several supervisors scoffed.

"If we carried this to the extreme we'd have to take Christmas decorations down from all lampposts," said Supervisor William Fusselman.

The request that the nativity scene not be allowed on the Walnut Creek city hall lawn was made in a letter dated October 17, written by Jess Abramowitz, attorney, and the Jewish Community Center's social action chairman.

THE LETTER was read at last week's city council meeting by Councilman Newell Case, and it prompted heated debate before a 3-1 vote was taken supporting the installation of the creche. Dissenter was Councilman Page, the council's only attorney member. Councilman Robert Nelson was absent.

The Jewish Community Center became involved only in an effort to forestall plans by one group not then within the organization to file a law suit against the city, said Rabbi David Robins of the center.

Coll Likely '62 Board Chairman

Supervisor Thomas Coll of Concord will probably be chosen chairman of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors January 2, under a rotation agreement which has been in effect for several years.

Coll, an attorney, will succeed Joseph Silva of Brentwood. Coll is a former Concord city councilman and was elected to the board in 1958.

If the rotation agreement is followed in future years, James Kennedy of Richmond will be chairman in 1963, and Edmund Linschied will succeed him in 1964.

W. J. Buchanan of Pittsburg was board chairman for nearly 30 years until his death in 1950. H. L. Cummings of Crockett succeeded him, and he retired in 1956.

Ray Taylor of Pleasant Hill was chairman in 1957, Ivan G. Yak of Pittsburg in 1958, W. G. Buchanan of Pittsburg in 1959 and Mel Nielsen of Lafayette in 1960.

Bridge Traffic Halted 2 Hours By Construction

Local commuters were delayed up to two hours last Friday by a construction breakdown on the Bay Bridge.

The entire lower deck of the bridge was blocked for an hour by a crane hoisting a 20-ton steel-reinforced concrete beam into place as part of the job of lowering the upper deck through Yerba Buena Island tunnel.

While workmen struggled from 4:20 to 5:30 p.m. to clear the roadway traffic was diverted to the already overcrowded upper deck of the bridge.

Compounding the difficulty was the now-famous hump on the upper deck.

A bumper to bumper procession of cars, buses and trucks backed up from the tunnel onto all entrances to the bridge from San Francisco streets. Congestion extended for miles along the Bayshore Freeway.

An AC Transit District dispatcher said some commuter buses ran up to two hours late. Traffic conditions over the bridge weren't returned to normal until 8 p.m.

Angry motorists, when they finally reached home, flooded California Highway Patrol switchboards with complaints. One said:

"We are going to organize a vigilante committee to tar and feather Raab (Norman C. Raab, division chief of the State Toll Bridge Authority). We are getting tired of two and three-hour delays every night."

Two Directors Are Added to Taxpayer Group

Dana Murdock of Lafayette and Warren G. (Bud) Buchanan of Pittsburg have been elected as directors of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association.

Murdock, an attorney of the firm of Tinning and DeLap of Richmond and Martinez, will serve in the homeowner classification.

Buchanan, former county supervisor, replaces former director Edward Rowland of Lafayette, who resigned due to pressure of business.

A Tough Employer...

By NORMAN COLBY

A machine has opened its own business office and has four area accountants working for it.

It's called the "390 electronic data processing system," and looks like a glorified adding machine with hi-fi attachments.

It's referred to respectfully as "390" by its office staff, which includes accountants Harold Apgar of Walnut Creek, Enzo Franceschi of Pleasant Hill, Harley King of Walnut Creek and Stanford White of Lafayette.

BUT "390" will probably have a nickname before long.

"390" already has its employees working hard at its new office at 1619 North Broadway, Walnut Creek. A word it likes, "ADATACO," has been placed on the door.

"390" is really taking over," said White.

"We need it because it can do in a thousandth of a second what takes each one of us hours."

"OUR ONLY fear is that when it gets acquainted around here, it may decide it doesn't need us."

The fearful four, who will continue to maintain their own local offices, are overjoyed because although the National Cash Register Company in Dayton, Ohio, is in production, this is the first "390" in operation in Northern California, and is among the first 20 in the nation to go into active service. (Another 390 has been unpacked in San Francisco.)

"390" arrived with a $75,000 price tag, but is being leased by the four accountants. They returned the packing cases, since they alone were valued at $3000.

Now comfortably installed in the middle of a spartan-green room, "390" waits quietly for the statistical information which is its only diet.

IT IMMEDIATELY absorbs, analyzes and completes profit and loss statements, balance sheets, sales analysis, job estimate and payroll reports.

Where the usual business machine gives up, "390" begins.

Its flashing panels give the operator orders and reprimand him when he makes an error.

"390's" four accountants will use its talents to eliminate much paper work, and will offer the same service to all other area accountants.

WHITE and Apgar have already traveled to Dayton to learn how to get along with "390."

"390" has been introduced to members of the Diablo Chapter of the Society of California Accountants and members of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.

And its membership applications are being expedited.

YMCA Opens Lots Selling Holiday Trees

Christmas tree lots will be opened by the Mt. Diablo YMCA tomorrow at Dewing Lane and Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, and across from the Park and Shop Shopping Center, Concord.

Several hundred Douglas and white fir trees from Oregon will be available.

Sun Carries Record 619 Classified Ads

Success Breeds Success, reads the old statement, and it can be paraphrased to read, Results-bring results!

A least, that seems to be the way local residents feel about Sun Classified ads.

During the week of December 6, The Sun (one issue only) carried 619 classified ads. This was 516 more ads than Paper C, and 249 ads more than Paper B.

And it was 146 more ads than were placed in the other two papers combined!

Obviously, placing a classified ad is a business proposition. You expect results. And people are going to place their ads where they get results.

The figures tell the story.

Delta Water Problems Told

Fears that the delta region will be flooded with salt water under the state department of water resources "Single Purpose Plan" were expressed to the state assembly interim committee on water this week.

Contra County Supervisor Mel Nielsen told committeemen he believes the current plans are based on politics rather than basic engineering.

Under the Single Purpose Plan, Nielsen said, salt water would be allowed to surround half a dozen islands in the delta and intrude through the Dutch and Sand Mound Sloughs and Franks Tract during most of the season.

Church Has Permit to Build, If...

A request of the Lafayette Christian Church to build in the Burton Valley area was granted December 5 by the Contra Costa County Planning Commission providing certain conditions were met.

Permission to build on a 3-acre site on the south side of Glenside Drive and the west side of Burton Drive will be granted only if a permanent right-of-way is secured and complete landscaping plans are submitted.

These landscaping plans must have the approval of the county before any building commitments are made.

A permanent right-of-way along the old Sacramento Northern route must be secured from Eastbay Municipal Utility District and P. G. & E., according to a church spokesman.

Fire Marshals Issue Greeting; Warn of Danger

Fire marshals of the Orinda and Lafayette Fire Departments, on behalf of their crews wish everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

In issuing the greeting, the fire marshals added, "Don't forget about fire hazards during the holiday season, don't mar the fun and excitement with tragedy."

"Have a safe Yule season full of joy and happiness by following the 'Golden Rule for a Happy Yule'."

Following is the "Golden Rule": "Stand tree in water or bucket of wet sand. Check tree lights for frayed wire, loose sockets. Keep tree away from radiator, fireplace and doors. Use only fire resistant decorations. Turn off tree lights when you go out.

"Keep gift wrappings and electric trains away from tree. When needles start to fall, remove tree from house. Do not burn gift wrappings in fireplace."

Acalanes Accents -

Students Count Minutes To Two Week Vacation!

By CAROL LACY

There are approximately three hours, forty-seven minutes, and twenty-two seconds left until Christmas vacation! And the Acalanes music department ended the year of 1961 with their annual Christmas program presented last Thursday night.

The program featured the A Cappella Choir, Girls' Ensemble, and Mixed Chorus directed by Richard Hansen, the Concert Band directed by Elvo d'Amante, and the Modern Dance group directed by Miss Hudson, a graduate student from Mills College. About 340 students participated.

TO OPEN the show the Concert Band played selections from "A Christmas Festival" by Leroy Anderson including such all-time favorites as "Jingle Bells" and "Deck the Halls With Boughs of Holly." The A Cappella Choir and Mixed Chorus, assisted by Susy Norton, alto, and Nancy Keathley, soprano, as soloists, sang parts of the "Messiah" by George Handel. Other songs were "And the Glory of the Lord," "Glory to God," and "Hallelujah."

NARRATED by Bob Ingham and written by Barbara Deitz, the Modern Dance group depicted four scenes about Christmas. The first three—a hectic shopping day, the peaceful evening at home decorating for the holidays, and the outdoor winter snow scene—were choreographed by the girls themselves.

The last, a religious scene, was planned by their director, Miss Hudson.

To start the second half of the program the Concert Band selected the "Overture Miniature" and "Marche" from the Nutcracker Suite.

"Lo How a Rose E'er Blooming," "Gesu Bambino" featuring Carol Helmick as soloist, and "Ave Maria" featuring Nancy Dinwiddie in the solo, were then beautifully sung by Girls' Ensemble.

A Cappella, including 70 hand-picked members, presented such songs as "Fanfare for Christmas Day," "He Is Born," and "Angels We Have Heard on High."

TO END the program was a grand finale with all the choirs and the band. They sang and played most of our favorite Christmas carols—"It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "Joy to the World," "The First Noel," "Silent Night" with Linda Bolen doing the solo, and many others.

Accompanists for the various choirs were Ann Adle, Sue Brown, Sonya Neblett, and Trudy Mazaika.

All in all the program was quite a success and made many of us realize the beauty and the real meaning of the holiday season. Our thanks go to the Music Department for making this program such a memorable event.

The usual money making projects for the classes and clubs are cake sales. However, this Christmas the senior class has decided to have a "Goodies Sale," which was held last Wednesday. The students sold such "goodies" as cupcakes, cookies, fudge and candy, or popcorn balls.

ORGANIZING this event were the class officers: Citizenship representatives—Judy David, Doug Southworth and Brian Allen; social secretary—Sue Stone; secretary—Carol Reibin; treasurer—Jan Edwards; vice president—John Bomberger, and president—Chris Westphal.

And now with Christmas vacation almost here won't you mothers be glad to have us under foot again? However, with the Christmas shopping, which most of us haven't done yet, vacation jobs, and various other odd plans we've cooked up, you may not see as much of us as you expect—that is if we can get away with the family car.

I would now like to take this opportunity to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year! See you next year!

In the Classroom.

Camino Pablo: Drama

On December 1 the eighth grade class of Camino Pablo School presented a one-act play entitled "Homework." The play was taken from one of the eighth grade reading books and concerned a family preoccupied with their own homework tasks.

The teen-aged daughter helps the family solve their problems by introducing "Muscles" Murray—teen-aged prodigy.

Approximately 130 parents and students attended this play which was held at the Old Moraga School. The cast included Larry Hermansen, Tina Kulkin, Trish Keilman, Bill Bowne, Jim Everett and Jacquie Pervier. Melanie Lank was the student producer.

Other members of the production staff included Kitty Cole, Dave Bartlett and Jim Stocking, props and scenery; Steve Graham and Greg Costa, tickets; Julie Ashby and Bonnie Spent, makeup; Carlton Davis, chief engineer; Tim Shea, Linda Thune, Lynn Bartz, publicity; Janice Holt, prompter.

Money raised by the sale of tickets will go into the Drama Club fund of the Camino Pablo Student Association.

Last Sunday a group of fifth, seventh and eighth grade children heard one of America's leading poets, Carl Sandburg, explain that "Poetry is a projection across silence."

Sandburg appeared at the Masonic Auditorium in San Francisco. He read some of his recent poetry, chatted about the state of the nation, play his guitar and sang.

The children thoroughly enjoyed the performance. They have been studying and writing poetry and many of them said that Carl Sandburg was their favorite poet.

Accompanying the children were their teachers, Ardis Breslau and husband and Gilda Gillooly together with some parents, Mrs. Bryant and Mr. and Mrs. McClish. Transportation was provided by the group.

Burton: Speech

Mrs. Burr's sixth grade class at Burton School has been studying the parts of speech. By knowing the different functions of each part, the students form sentences. Through more ease in correct formation, they should be able to express themselves in writing with more accuracy and detail.

In addition to this more formal experience in language, the class has been divided into groups and has planned, written and presented short plays on the theme of Thanksgiving. This has been good practice in planning things logically as well as working together in groups.

THE FIRST grade in Room 4 at Burton School has been studying about the first Thanksgiving.

They made a large four-scene mural depicting the pilgrims crossing the ocean, building their first homes, planting the crops, and the first Thanksgiving feast.

In making the mural, the children found out it was not enough to know only the story. They had to learn about the seasons and why Thanksgiving is held after harvest time.

WRAPPING packages, or addressing cards for busy Christmas Shoppers provides a needed community service and at the same time helps teen-agers earn some shopping money of their own. Fees are very low and the service is located at 3471 Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Hours are daily from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Youngsters work under adult supervision and keep what they earn. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

Moraga District Will Hire New Reading Teacher

Moraga School trustees directed Superintendent William Knight to put kindergarten on triple session and hire a new teacher at their regular meeting Wednesday night in Rheem School.

The new teacher will teach one kindergarten class and teach the remedial reading program, according to a report from the office of the superintendent.

In another discussion the board agreed that the administration may seek a suitable teacher for an instrumental music program.

Old Fashion Carol Party Is Presented

Troop 40 was host for the event. Mesdames H. D. Radcliff and R. D. Emory, Troop 40 leaders were assisted by Mrs. R. D. Emory, director for the entire production.

All troops sang a special arrangement of "The Little Drummer Boy" accompanied by Craig Johnston on the drum. Mrs. William Maier was piano accompanist for the entire production.

Troops participating, each rendering a selection, included: Brownie Troops 114, 41, 300, 209; Intermediate Girl Scout Troops 251, 40, 25, 312, and Senior Troop 168.

Students Are Inspired by Yule Spirit

Fairview School, Lafayette, held a can drive December 6, 7 and 8, to gather canned and staple foods for the Christmas bureau to distribute to the less fortunate people of Contra Costa County.

The spirit of Christmas giving and an offered prize inspired the students to collect an estimated 4,050 cans. The students of Fairview School said they appreciated the opportunity to donate cans to the less fortunate.

In a recent student council meeting Daniel Silverman, president, appointed Paul Winters to head the committee in charge of the can drive. Paul, in turn, chose five members: Tam Thar-rat, Janet Silverman, Melinda Roloff, Andy Mixer and Bill Wisner to serve with him. The committee was in charge of organizing, stacking and boxing the canned goods.

The winning eighth grade classes were 8-4 and 8-5, tied with 15 boxes each, and 7-1 with 13 boxes winning in the seventh grade. Each box holds approximately 50 cans of average size.

Several classes set an overall goal for the class while some pupils set individual goals of over 100 cans. Janie Stone, Janet Silverman, Lori Hill, Linda Gearhart and Graham Maloney each brought in over 100 cans.

Ted Collins, principal, in a message to the students stated, "The can drive was a terrific success! It is rewarding to see the spirit of giving on the part of all Fairview students. I realize how many hours of labor went into the drive. It is fine to know that the less fortunate of our county will benefit by your thoughtfulness and enthusiasm."

Barcelon's Work Commended by LDP Board

A resolution commending Ted Barcelon and the Downtown Property Owners Association for their work toward ascertaining the feasibility of the incorporation of the business community of Lafayette, was passed unanimously Saturday by the board of directors of the Lafayette Design Project.

Barcelon was present at the meeting to introduce the findings of a preliminary report prepared by William Zion, governmental research consultant.

Excess revenue of $114,260 yearly would be available for implementing the suggestions of Aaron Green of the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation and for general improvements, if the business community incorporated according to the plan of the preliminary survey.

Stadlman Car Leaves Road, Couple Hurt

Anthony Stadlman, Jr., 44, of 1094 Thompson Road, Lafayette, and his wife, Winifred, 35, were injured early Sunday morning when their automobile went off the road at the St. Mary's and Moraga roads intersection.

They were taken to Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek, according to California State Highway Patrol officers.

Stadlman says his vision was obscured by fog and the frost on the windshield as he approached the intersection. He failed to see the stop sign at the corner and went off the road.

County Treasurer Can't Run; Others Debating

Most other county officials District Attorney John Nejedly whose terms are ending have not indicated their plans yet. Earlier said he wants a second term.

Nominating petitions may be taken out as early as March 7 and filing deadline is April 6, according to County Clerk Walter Paasch.

THE JUNE 5 primary will be shortened by the fact that superior, municipal and judicial court judges also constables will not have to run this time.

Treasurer Kinney, an El Cerrito resident, has passed the 70-year mandatory retirement age. He took office in 1951, succeeding Charles Dodge.

Other county officials whose terms will expire include Supervisor Thomas Coll of Concord representing the third district, Supervisor James Kennedy of Richmond, first district.

School Superintendent Floyd Marchus, Sheriff Walter Young, Assessor C. L. Dunklee, Auditor Howard McNamer, District Attorney John Nejedly.

CORNER - PUBLIC Administrator L. H. Fraser, Clerk-Recorder Paasch.

Terms are expiring for Congressman John Baldwin, State Senator George Miller, J., 10th District Assemblyman Jerome Walde and 11th District Assemblyman John Knox.

Democrat and Republican county central committeemen will also be elected June 5.

Valley Art Center Has Unusual Gift Selections

Christmas gifts with a flair are now on sale at the Valley Art Center at La Fiesta Square in Lafayette. Each is a unique and beautiful work of art, signed by the artist; yet the price range of these gifts includes the very moderate as well as the very grand. Prices begin at 50 cents, and most of the gifts are tagged at less than $10, according to Julie Rousseau, center publicity chairman.

Mrs. Richard Johnston of Lafayette, the new director of the Valley Art Center, has collected the gift and decorations for the Christmas sale.

JEWEL-LIKE mobiles of glass and plastic, made by Ruth Howard of Walnut Creek, come in many glittering sizes and shapes.

A delightful collection of silk screen prints by Irene Lagorio has just been placed on display.

Jewelry in the modern manner includes an intriguing collection of rings, pins, bracelets, each an ornament and a conversation piece.

And since Christmas begins at home, the Valley Art Center offers many distinctive decorations, even the rental of paintings to create a festive atmosphere in any house.

Fashions Are Shown by Girl Scout Troop

Girl Scout Troop 18 presented "Round the Clock" fashions at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church recently.

Fashions were from Benedict's in Lafayette. The show was the culminating activity for the good grooming badge, which was given under the direction of Mrs. Doris Wood. Miss Molly Hunter was the commentator for the show.

Models, all members of Troop 18, were: Barbara Blaisdell, Nancy Briggs, Patty Chilcote, Diddo Clark, Nancy Clarke, Alice Edwards, Norma Hawkins, Kathy Hagarty, Jo Anne Hellman, Sally Hunter, Ann Lesser, Virginia Shull, Cindy Sykes and Anne Warner.

A court of awards ceremony was also held. Members of the troop receiving first class rank included Nancy Briggs, Patty Chilcote, Alice Edwards, Norma Hawkins, Kathy Hagarty, Jo Anne Hellman and Cindy Sykes.

At their last meeting the troop members made small Christmas trees for patients at the county hospital in Martinez. They also will sing carols at the hospital during the Christmas season.

Joyful Moment Sours

It was a joyful, Christmasy moment for William P. Tolle, a manager at Lynch Market on North Main Street, Walnut Creek.

The man who had accidentally shortchanged a clerk $100 had called by phone to say he noticed he had $100 too much, he was sorry, and was considering returning to the store without delay.

Tolle thanked him for calling, and asked him how far from the store he had traveled.

The man replied over the phone that he might be too far away to return before the store closed for the day.

"In that case, could you give me your name and address?" asked Tolle.

There was a pause on the other end, then a click, then silence. The line had gone dead.

The clerk, Judy Joy Sweet, said the man who walked off with $100 in 5's and 20's and his $100 bill offered for change, was 23-24 years old, 5 feet 9 inches, husky build, blond, short jacket.

Two District Unity Seems Reasonable

Tuesday the County Augmented Committee on School District Reorganization will meet to work out details for presenting a unification plan to the residents of the area at a public hearing.

For several years The Sun has felt that unification of the Acalanes High School District and the elementary school districts within its boundaries would be a good idea.

We have said so repeatedly, and we have based our opinion on what is best for the youngsters, the only real criterion by which a unification setup should be judged.

We are certainly impressed by the fact that the elementary district trustees—Orinda, Canyon, Moraga, Lafayette and Walnut Creek—have been able to agree on a unification plan.

THE PLAN which they agreed upon, of course, is "Plan F" in the Odell report—a plan which would create two unified districts in the Acalanes District. One would comprise the Orinda, Moraga and Canyon elementary districts and Miramonte and Campolindo high schools; the other would merge Lafayette and Walnut Creek and include Del Valle, Acalanes and Las Lomas high schools.

The county committee, of course, and the Acalanes trustees maintained that one large district as recommended by the Odell group is the only workable plan and should be presented to the voters.

FRANKLY, it is quite apparent that everybody is in favor of unification of the Acalanes district. And, frankly, the plan agreed upon by the elementary districts seems to be quite workable.

It has all the basic merits of total unification of the district without the one criticism that has been leveled—size. Certainly a school district with an ultimate population of 25,000 youngsters is large enough to contain the merits of unification. Bigness for bigness sake is not a virtue.

Another matter to consider in making a decision is that the plan recommended by the elementary districts could very well be better ultimately simply because of the way local residents feel about their school systems.

Our residents seem to work more closely with their school boards and districts than residents of some other areas. Thus, local contact with the local school board and district becomes an exceedingly important factor in consideration of a unification plan.

ANOTHER INTERESTING factor is the fact that for years the elementary districts have been unable to agree on any kind of plan. It looked as if there were absolutely no chance of any kind agreement among the various districts, and therefore the county committee more or less felt that it would have to take matters into its own hands.

But now there has been a complete switch in attitudes. All elementary districts are in favor of a single plan, and this should not be ignored.

We urge the county committee to heed the popular sentiment reflected by this action on the part of the elementary trustees. We also urge the elementary district trustees to present their case for Plan F at the public hearing, when it is called, and we urge that the committee listen to their presentation.

FURTHERMORE, we urge the committee to adopt Plan F, to reconsider, rather than to present a plan for total unification to the voters early next year.

It would be unfortunate to present a proposition which appears to have so much opposition right off the bat. It is entirely possible that Plan F is what the people really want.

To present such an issue, which would have a reasonable chance of success, would save both time and money.

To present an issue which would have a strong chance of rejection would be a terrific waste, and it appears that a total plan of unification would be such an issue now.

Letters to The Editor

SHERIFF
Dear Editor:

I do not know County Administrator Joseph McBrien personally, but I would like to comment on his statement made in the paper recently when the Martinez Grange went on record as opposing a proposal that the office of sheriff be made appointive.

Mr. McBrien said: "there is no more reason for the election of the sheriff than there is for the election of a city police chief."

I am very glad he made this statement because it shows how easily he may mislead the public in trying to centralize power in the board of supervisors over whom he, in turn exerts considerable control and in his position as administrator has a weapon of individual pressure to use.

IT IS ABOUT time to call a "spade—a spade" in this supposedly innocent proposal that the sheriff be "appointed" in the future by the board of supervisors of five members, instead of being "elected" by 170,000 or more voters of Contra Costa County.

I was born in this county, one block from the court house, was raised here, was a newspaperman in this county for 14 years and knew every sheriff we had from the days of Sheriff R. R. Veale—one of the county's greatest citizens—in person. It has also been my job to handle many election campaigns, supervisor, sheriff, assemblyman, senator and congressional races.

When a sheriff campaigns county-wide, he has strength in each of the supervisorial districts. Consequently he can go before the board and fight for his ideas. If he has a disagreement with one member of the board, and wants to throw his political strength against him the next time the supervisor runs, the sheriff can do so because he runs county-wide. This is a good, healthy situation, because a good hard political fight brings out many truths.

ON THE other hand, if one supervisor opposes the sheriff, he only has his main strength in his own district when the sheriff runs, so it is harder for him to fight the sheriff. This is a 5 to one odds deal, with the sheriff on the small end, so it certainly does NOT give the sheriff any unfair advantage and it keeps the political climate healthy.

In the case of a police chief, he has only one city, but a sheriff operates county-wide. Many times there is a strike going on in Richmond, Antioch or even Crockett or some other city at the same time, and the sheriff has to be fair and judicious. As any voter well knows—members of the board of supervisors often have to make "trades" with each other to get votes for projects in their particular district—because they are elected "in" their "own" district, and do not have to care so much what happens in "another" district because they don't get their votes there.

In the case of a police chief, he and the city council would share the blame equally because they are all in the same city, but this condition would not apply on a county-wide sheriff, district-wide supervisor situation as you can easily see. Therefore, Mr. McBrien is wrong when he says the police chief and sheriff appointments are the same.

ANOTHER thing the supervisors may overlook—they will certainly breed the stiffest kind of opposition for their own political jobs—once they have control of the sheriff's job. I, myself, could guarantee that I would be glad to work for nothing as a campaign writer

We Like It Here . . . Soliloquy to a Christmas Tree, Full and Green!

By MARIE MONAHAN

O CHRISTMAS TREE, O Christmas Tree!

No silver shingle one for me!
NO white one full of satin bows—
Or tinted ones of blue & rose.

I WANT A tree that's full & green . . .
One big enough to house a scene of Children crunching candy canes.

OF BOUNCING balls & choo-choo trains . . .
A TREE that's fragrance is far-spread—
That's woody scent goes to my head.

A TREE that may on That Day wear
In its soft limbs, a Teddy Bear.
A tree not gold or stiffly formal.

The tree sold to me must be normal
In all its lovely natural state . . .
TO OTHER TREES, I give the gate.

I like a tree that's not too small.
Symmetrical, but not too tall.
A tree that needs no quick repair.

To amputate where limbs are bare.
THE TREE I choose must be just right
To keep me company at night.

A tree that when it's home will wear,
A Swedish straw star in its hair.
A family of brown gingerbread.

A tiny soldier made of lead.
GOLD CHERUBS, gilded eggshells, too . . .
The paper chains we patch with glue.

THE SNOWMAN & his Lady Love . . .
A Danish Tomte elf above—
A burnished garland, mellow gold.

Needlepoint Santas, very old . . .
Norwegian flags, childhood treasure,
All these will dress the tree with pleasure.

SO it is that I must find,
Just the kind we have in mind.
A tree with ample hanging places.

For wooden angels, rosey faces.
WITH LONG cool arms that reach to hug
The children sitting on the rug.

(Round the Christmas Tree let I go . . .
No Eney, Meeny, Miney, Mo . . .)
A TREE I want as fresh as rain,

To mirror in the window pane,
WHERE it will cast a framed reflection
O dangling toy & doll collection.

THE TREE I seek with highest hopes
Must cope with popcorn & cranberry ropes.
O Christmas Tree, O Christmas Tree . . .

A BIG DECISION you can be!

to help remove supervisors whom I felt might be juggling the sheriff's job unfairly—and I think any informed voter would do the same.

I would say this—the supervisors have enough work to do today to do their own jobs properly—without trying to take on the job of sheriff and as every voter in the county already knows, it is a full time job to be sheriff. He has to account to the majority of "all" the voters if he wants to remain sheriff, not to just "three out of five" members of the board of supervisors, plus a "guiding light" county administrator.

You will also find—dear voter—that most supervisors and other "elected" officers have usually been long time residents of the county, while the various "administrators" are usually new arrivals from other areas and while I realize the truth of the old statement that "an expert is any man who is 50 miles from his home town"—having been in that position myself—I still repeat that you have to live in Contra Costa County a good many years, and travel a lot of miles before you know the "real picture" and can serve the public best.

Sheriff R. R. Veale, Sheriff John A. Miller, Sheriff James A. Long, Sheriff Harry Brown, and now Sheriff Walter Young—maybe they all had a fault or two, even as you or I—but honestly, as you think of it—were they and are they such bad guys?

The public voters picked them, and I for one don't think that any board of five (or six) supervisors, can do a whole lot better.

Under The Sun Now Is Time to Come To Aid of Your Party

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

It's almost "regular" election time again. The primary is six months away—in June. While most of us are thinking of only the holidays, others are already acting like candidates. Let's look at a couple of rumors:

RUMOR NO. 1: Harold Mutnick, lawyer in Lafayette, may run for congress against Incumbent Republican John Baldwin. Mutnick is a very active democrat, who surprised everyone by winning the party's primary for assemblyman a few years ago. And he also ran for supervisor, district 2, losing in the primary.

A re-match of the champs?

RUMOR NO. 2: Ray Taylor will try to regain supervisor's post (district 3) from Incumbent Tom Coll next June. Some observers say that Taylor has never stopped campaigning, even after Coll defeated him in '58.

RUMOR NO. 3: Jim Ring is thinking seriously of challenging Supervisor (district 2) Mel Nielsen. Even though this election is two years away, Ring is tossing up some trial balloons. Ring is a Walnut Creek attorney but lives in Lafayette. He was recently elected to Lafayette Fire Commission and is active in the community.

This could be a very interesting race because you hear increasing criticism against Nielsen. On the other hand, Mel has been in office for some years and obviously will make some people unhappy. Last year he was elected without opposition.

This is the crux of the problem. Many able citizens in our community simply won't run for office. There has been some talk of organizing a citizens' good government committee to draft a candidate to campaign against Nielsen.

Any challengers?

Two county races of utmost interest next June are for sheriff and district attorney. Both incumbents, Sheriff Walter Young of Lafayette and D. A. John Nejedly of Walnut Creek, have announced for reelection. The BIG question is who will run against them? They could both possibly be unopposed.

A political quiz . . .

Have you met John Knox?
You ask, "Who is John Knox?"

Knox is the assemblyman for Orinda, Lafayette, part of Saranap, Alamo and Danville. These residents will vote for or against him in the next June's Assembly election.

Technically, he is not our assemblyman yet. He is the assemblyman from the Richmond area. But remember that the assembly districts were changed (as of next election) and the above named areas were redistricted into Knox's domain.

Knox, an attorney, is a democrat from Richmond, the democrat stronghold. The heavy republican majority of Contra Costa County will count less now that the GOP vote has been split between the two assembly districts. (Democrat Jerry Waldie is assemblyman for Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, etc.)

Local republicans and Richmond republicans will have to get together and find a candidate to run against Knox. In former years these two republican groups haven't been too friendly.

From Nome to Richmond

Interesting side note on John Knox. Interesting to me anyway. In a recent letter, Knox asked if I was the editor of "The North Star," Alaskan division air force paper, during World War II. Yes, John was a reporter for the paper at Nome and we worked together long distance.

A final word on politics, which is so important to us individually and to our nation. If you're interested in participating, there are democrat and republican organizations that would certainly welcome you. If you wish to contribute to your community and would like to run for office, you should. Able men (or women) are needed.

Letters to The Editor

THE SHELTER

I've built me a fallout shelter,
A refuge from the storm.
I've built it long and wide and deep,

With a stove to keep it warm.
The walls are more than three feet thick,
With steel beams cast inside.

The roof is made of solid lead
The port holes many-plyed.
Two months' rations I have stocked,
And water, beer and wine.

A small TV (a necessity)
For catching "What's My Line."
The furniture in Danish style
Is mostly basic teak;

And deep-piled carpets everywhere
To make the room less bleak.
The door at the top of the winding stair
Is forced from bank vault steel.

The dial-type lock is burglar proof
I hasten to reveal.
I don't know of a gent who's better prepared
For the horrors of nuclear war.

When the missiles are popping all over the place
I'll find life is really a bore.
What's that you say? We've just been attacked?
And Conelrad's given the flash?

To my shelter I'm strolling,
its virtues extolling
While the world cooks down to an ash.

I arrive somewhat breathless,
although as yet deathless
Thinking thoughts of self-preservation.

As I grab hold of the lock, my heart sinks like a rock,

I've forgotten the damn combination!

TOO SOON

Dear Editor:
Just want to add my support of Marie Monahan's column, "Too Much, Too Soon." Seventh grade is too early for a heavy social life for many reasons.

Particularly I'm concerned about our children rushing about (I enjoyed the "Suburbia Primer") with much too much to do, missing out on those relaxed pleasures of the last childhood years, time for hobbies, long walks, etc. The seventh grade dance instruction at night is the last straw. If it must be, then why not after school instead of G.A.A.?

I hope your column has stirred up enough response so that some changes can be made.
MRS. BETH WITT

SCHOOL DANCES

Dear Editor:
My congratulations to Marie Monahan for her recent column, "Too Much, Too Soon." I couldn't agree more. School dances, pom-pom girls, should not begin before high school.

Let's let our children be children for a while, all too soon they are adults. There are more teen marriages than ever before, could all this pushing of children into adult activities be abetting this?

Let's start to desocialize our kids, there are too many organized activities. Let's let our children have time to sit in a chair and read a book along with Ma and Pa who are exhausted from all this chauffeuring.

Another Black Friday - - For Commuters

Black Friday, if we remember correctly, refers to the great stock market crash of 1929, but it would seem as if there were now another black Friday in the books.

Certainly every local commuter, plus anybody else who happened to be trying to get from the East Bay to San Francisco or vice versa last week remembers the monumental traffic jam.

It didn't take much to cause it, either. Just block off the lower deck of the bridge for a while and route all the other traffic over the now famous hump, and you've got it.

THE TROUBLE is, this is likely, according to state estimates, to go on for many many more months.

One can't blame commuters for being unhappy. It is not pleasant to add a couple of hours each day to an already long schedule.

So what can be done?

In the first place, it looks as if the state could do a little more planning. The tie-up last Friday was caused by the erection of a concrete beam on the lower deck.

This blocked off the deck right at the height of commuter traffic. A little better scheduling would have made thousands of people happier.

A LITTLE more public relations and careful planning on the part of the contractor and the state could go a long way towards alleviating the pain.

On the other hand, there are some practical remedies, too.

Sure, everybody will say it's OK for the other guy, but not for me.

What is that? A car pool. If every driver teamed up with another one it would cut the congestion by half. Busses are good too, and the more commuters in busses, the less driving their own cars.

Car pools were set up during the war, when gas rationing was in effect, and they worked very well. Sure, they might have been inconvenient at times, but so is a two-hour delay every night.

How about it commuters—car pools and busses, or late for dinner?

The Staff Corner Their Fate Sealed

By NORMAN COLBY

The "moment of truth" is not far off for hundreds of senior boys and girls in the Acalanes Union High School District.

Semester final examinations come a few weeks after Christmas vacation. Remaining is only one semester of study, accompanied by more than the usual amount of social activity preliminary to graduation.

But for all practical purposes the fate of each senior is sealed in those records compiled in 1958, 1959 and 1960, the years when the assignments required hours of grappling and the problems of growing up were greatest.

THE BOY OR GIRL who followed wise guidance in those earlier years and stuck to the books now has the preparation which will make him acceptable to any college or university in the United States.

The old grades from the freshman, sophomore and junior years will tell the tale.

Parents may discover that their child followed counselor's advice and worked hardest on English, mathematics, language, science and history, considered the "basics."

To qualify for a diploma in the Acalanes District, their child must have three years of English. (And to enter college, four years.)

HE MUST HAVE taken a mathematics course, and also a junior year math proficiency exam.

He must have taken a full year of science, a world history and geography course, a United States history course.

His senior year must include "American Problems" which is half a study of local, state and national government, the other half the issues which currently concern this country and the world.

All these courses are required even if he intends never again to set foot in a classroom.

AND IF HE intends to enter the University of California or a similar institution, two thirds of his entire high school study must be confined to these basic English, math, language, science and history courses.

There is time for electives, too, but they are the cake and ice cream. The solid nourishment has been provided.

Driver training and physical education are also high school requirements. Are they necessary? Most parents think so.

Unfortunately, many adults have formed the opinion that "driver training" has replaced the "hard core" courses.

The Acalanes District's record of college acceptances and later student successes in colleges everywhere disproves this.

Sierra Guild States Policy

Sierra Guild, mother guild of the John Muir Hospital Auxiliary, is set up to take into its membership any interested women in the community who want to contribute time or talent to the hospital, according to the new guild president, Mrs. Eric Anderson.

"This is Muir's 'open guild,'" stresses Mrs. Anderson, "and our welcome to newcomers will be warm. We can always use another pair of willing hands to further the work of a hospital that is needed so crucially in our community."

Sierra Guild is working along with all the sister guilds to fulfill the auxiliary's pledge of $75,000 towards the construction fund of the proposed hospital on Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek.

A campaign to raise $300,000 locally by mid-February is underway, with particular emphasis at this time upon the large advance gift category—from business firms, institutions, clubs, and the like.

Lloyd Christiansen, local attorney, talked enthusiastically to a large group of teen-agers, business people and mothers who will lead the mothers' march.

He outlined the national foundation's method of attacking health problems on a broader front.

They, through the new march of dimes, are leading the fight to prevent crippling diseases including birth defects, arthritis, polio and other viruses, he said.

Bill McLaughlin, president of the Optimists Club, will handle special events; Elmo Guilieri will direct school collections; Ben Martinez, business collections; Mrs. R. G. Hansen, mothers' march; Mrs. Fred Sanders, publicity.

Church Choir Will Present Yule Recital

The children's choir of Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church will present a Christmas recital Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. under the direction of Rev. Leonard Weeks.

Other Christmas services planned are one Christmas Eve at 11 p.m. and other Christmas services will include regular church services December 24 and a Christmas Eve service at 11 p.m.

A Christmas concert was presented Sunday at the church featuring two ambitious choral works—Bach's "Magnificat" and the modern composition of Ron Nelson's, "The Christmas Story."

The church sanctuary was filled to capacity as the Rev. Weeks directed oratory and cantata choirs and instrumentalists numbering more than 100 who sang and played in praise of the nativity.

Rev. Carl Thomas, pastor of the church, was narrator for Nelson's Christmas story. The organist was John Burke and baritone Richard Frock, the soloist.

Members of the brass choir accompanying were Boardman Moore, Bob Galletti, Bob Brand, Ken Jones, Bob Reichert, Stan Shoptaugh and Bill Eldridge III.

Soloist in the cantata choir for the "Magnificat" were Helen Kimball, soprano; Nancy Allen, alto, and Bill McCormack, tenor. Instrumentalists were Evangelina Honnold, Bill Jensen, Walter Bells, Kathy Scott, Minnie Lewis and Pat Davis.

Following the late afternoon concert, the entire musical group and their spouses were feted by the rest of the church membership at a varied potluck supper at Pastor Thomas' home, 3900 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

Campolindo Boundaries Disputed by Parents

In response to a request by residents of the Hidden Valley-Acalanes Road area, Acalanes trustees postponed decision on the inclusion of that area in the proposed Campolindo High School attendance boundary.

The parents, who seek to remain in the Acalanes High School attendance area, urged the school board to consider other sectors which they claim are situated closer to the Campolindo site than Hidden Valley-Acalanes Road.

The parent group suggested the Silver Springs-Lafayette Woodlands and Powell Drive as areas that might be assigned to Campolindo High in preference to their students.

The board indicated that it would attempt to reach a decision at its January 2 meeting. Acalanes High School District trustees will continue their exploration for a suitable sixth site for a new district high school.

Two possible sites are now under consideration, one near the San Pablo watershed area and the other between Sleepy Hollow and Upper Happy Valley.

Trustees voted to explore other site possibilities, if any exist.

Construction of a sixth high school would be several years off. District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons explained, "The district is interested, however, in finding a suitable site before usable land is completely developed or improved, and the price for property goes any higher."

In other action, high school trustees moved to assess Reynolds Construction Company, $1200, the equivalent of 24 days' liquidated damages for delays in completing construction work at Del Valle High.

They heard a request by Mrs. Marion Powelson for circulation of liberal publications as well as conservative periodicals in school libraries. Mrs. Powelson also expressed doubt as to the wisdom of the civil defense plans outlined by area elementary and secondary schools and approved by CD officials.

She questioned the safety inherent in evacuation, sending children home on foot in a disaster, or building shelters at schools, observing that "The best deterrent to nuclear disaster is a concentrated effort for an effective peace."

High school trustees will meet again on January 2 and 22, and on the first and third Mondays thereafter for the balance of the school year beginning in February.

College Park Wins Again, Dons Lose 1st

Trojans Notch First B Win; LL Wins 2nd

Vic Shellenberg scored 16 points to lead Del Valle B team to its first victory last Friday against the J.V.'s from College Park. The final score was 39-30.

The Trojans held a one-point advantage at the end of the first quarter. In the second period the Trojan defense allowed only two field goals, while scoring six itself. The score at the half was Del Valle, 23; College Park, 14.

Both teams scored 16 points in the second half. Bruce Black was the next highest scorer to Shellenberg. Black netted 10 points.

IN ITS first game of the season, Del Valle dropped a decision to Skyline, 39-27. Shellenberg was high scorer with 11 points. Trojan J.V. and frosh teams will begin play on January 12.

The Las Lomas B team started off the season two weeks ago with a close, 35-34, victory over visiting College Park J.V.'s.

Knight Steve Miles led the team with 10 points followed by Steve Michelson with six points.

Last Tuesday, Las Lomas traveled to Pleasant Hill and were defeated, 43-25, by the Rams' J.V. team. Mike Silvey led the Rams with 14 points. Mark Perrin was next in line with eight points.

IN THE losing effort, Rich Bovo scored six points and Steve Miles hit four.

The Knights came back Friday with a 35-15 victory over Amador. Bovo was again the mainstay of the Las Lomas attack with 13 points. Michelson scored five points. Las Lomas' J.V. and frosh begin play on January 5.

Four DVC Players Are Named to All-Coast Team

Four Diablo Valley College football players were selected on the 1961 All-Coast Conference grid team by the league coaches last week.

Van Boschetti, Tom Strain and Wally Busch were picked on the offensive unit and John Rodgers was named to the defensive squad.

The Vikings finished with the best season since 1952 by posting a 7-2 record. They were 5-2 in the Coast Conference and tied for second place.

Strain, a freshman quarterback from Acalanes completed 61 passes in 123 attempts for a 49.8 average which was tops in the league.

Individually, Strain placed fifth in total offense with 761 yards. He was third in the passing department with 731 yards. Boschetti is a 200-pound center who went both ways for the Vikings. He captained Alhambra's team in 1960.

Busch, a sophomore, was the Vikings' co-captain. The former Las Lomas star was chosen the most valuable lineman at DVC for the past two seasons. He also was a regular on both platoons for Coach Sam DeVito.

Rodgers was also a two-way performer at end for the Vikings and the team's other co-captain.

He caught 12 passes during the year to rank sixth in the Coast Conference.

Acalanes, Falcons Win In Friday Prep Games

Acalanes won its second straight "cliff hanger" last Friday night to remain the only undefeated local prep team. The win, 41-39, over Antioch, was the second of the season for the Dons.

In other action, College Park picked up its second straight victory, this time to Amador, 33-31. The win was Amador's first after five straight setbacks.

Walter Cardinet was the hero for Acalanes as he netted a close-in, left-handed hook shot in the final second of play to give the Dons their come-from-behind win.

The two-points were the total scoring output for the senior guard, but they couldn't have come at a better time.

ANTIOCH jumped in front in the opening period, leading 15-7 at the end of the session. It was 25-17 at the half with the second period all even.

In the third quarter, the Dons made their move, cutting the Panther lead to one point, 31-30, as the final period began.

The teams traded baskets and the lead several times in the final stanza before the Dons tied the score at 39-all and gained possession of the ball with 44 seconds to play.

Acalanes stalled out the final seconds waiting for the last shot and Cardinet made the strategy pay off.

Center Bill Higgins paced the Acalanes offense with 16 points. Guard John Paul Jones chipped in with six baskets and a free throw for 13.

Del Valle dropped its third decision in four starts when College Park came from behind with a strong second-half flourish to win going away in a game slowed by continual trips to the free throw line.

THE TROJANS opened up an 8-2 lead early in the first quarter, but saw the Falcons cut the margin to one point, 15-14, at the quarter. The Falcons began to take command in the second quarter, outscoring the host team, 9-6, and taking a slim, 23-21, lead at the intermission.

The Falcons increased their lead to nine points in the third quarter, then held off a Del Valle rally at the start of the fourth quarter which cut the Parkers lead to five points.

The story of the game can best be told by the rebounding statistics. College Park nabbed 48 balls off the backboard while Del Valle got only 28. The Trojans were limited to one shot on many occasions as they grabbed only five offensive rebounds.

Mickey Sytkowski paced the winners with 19 points on six baskets and seven free throws. Art Miller had 10 points.

Bill O'Toole and Randy Quadros led the Trojans scoring with 10 and nine points respectively.

IN ALL, 43 fouls were called in the game, 23 on Del Valle and 20 on College Park. Del Valle converted on 14 of 28 attempts from the free throw line while College Park hit on 17 of 32 attempts.

Amador pulled out its win over Las Lomas at the free throw line, connecting on 17 of 24 free throws. The Dons made only seven field goals, and just one in the second half.

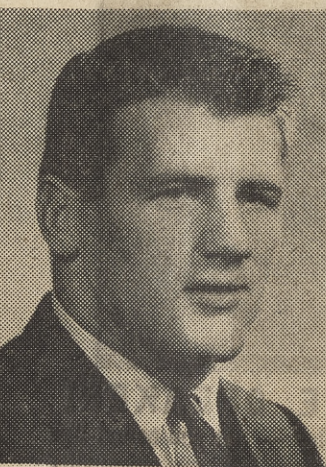

Las Lomas could make only seven of 18 free throws. The Knights outscored Amador from the floor, 24-14.

Both teams were ice cold in the shooting department. Las Lomas attempted 41 shots and made 12 for 29 per cent while Amador connected on seven of 43 attempts for 18 per cent.

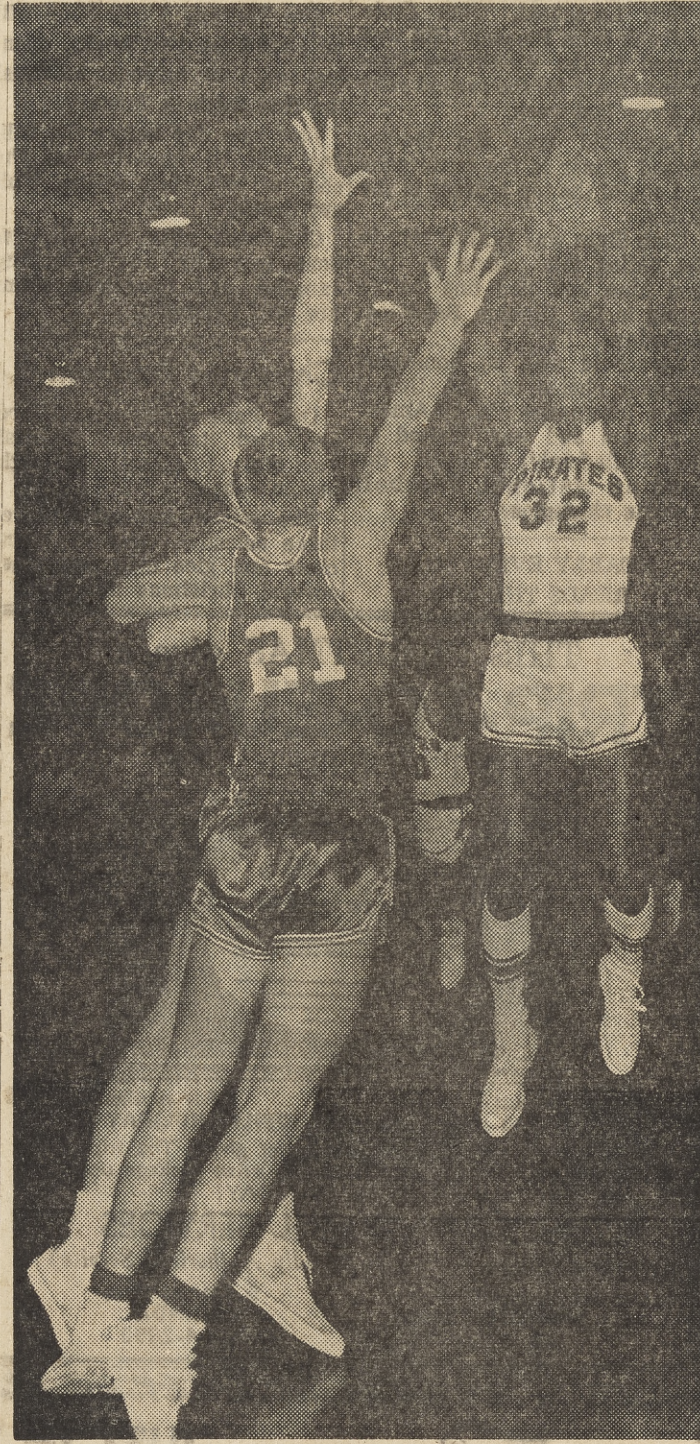

Las Lomas center Bob Nichols was held to eight points as he could hit on only three of 12 attempts. Greg Bertagnoli, the Knights' top outside threat, had five points and made only two goals on 11 tries.

Forward Rick Inman paced the Knights with nine points. The Dons held a slight advantage throughout the first three quarters, leading 25-21 going into the final session.

Las Lomas pulled into the lead late in the game, but Amador connected on three free throws in the last minute to take the win.

BRITT WILLIAMS of Walnut Creek has been selected on the All-Coast teams of both the Associated Press and United Press International wire services. Williams, a senior guard, was captain of the University of Southern California team this year. Williams was also an All-Big Five selection and received mention on several All-America teams. He played his prep football at Las Lomas High School.

LEAPING HIGH to get away his shot over the outstretched arms of two Miramonte defenders is Pittsburg forward Fred Davis. The defensive efforts of Bruce Nickerson (21) and a teammate bothered Davis enough to make the shot misfire. The Mats won, 50-44, for their first win of the season after three defeats. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

PH's JV Team Wins First 4; CP Is 2-2

Pleasant Hill Junior Varsity basketball players have won four out of four games in the first two weeks of this season. The undefeated Rams dumped Livermore, 27-22, for its first victory in practice competition. Pete Hall was high scorer with seven points.

The J.V.'s scored an impressive, 43-25, win over Las Lomas B's in its second endeavor. Last Thursday and Friday, successive games with Mt. Diablo added two more victories to the Rams' credit. The Devils were defeated, 39-36, in an exciting overtime contest. Hall was again high man for Pleasant Hill with 10 points.

In the fourth game of the practice season, Pleasant Hill beat Mt. Diablo, 43-32. The Rams held a three-point advantage at the half, but scored 38 points in the final quarter to notch the win.

Mike Silvey pushed in 14 points during the winning effort. The Rams hit 56 per cent of its shots from the floor in the second half and at one point scored eight consecutive baskets in the third period for 16 points.

The Pleasant Hill frosh have won one out of three games. Its first game featured a win over Pacifica, 27-16. Jim Forney and Robert Fabian led the scoring with eight and seven points respectively.

Fabian again led the team in a losing effort against College Park, 28-27, by notching seven points. He scored six tallies against Pittsburg, but the Rams suffered a second straight defeat, 44-16.

College Park Junior Varsity has won two and lost two. It nipped San Ramon, 35-34, but

Raiders Lose-- But La Morinda Adds '7th' Win

The La Morinda Thunderbirds added a "seventh win" to their record last Saturday at Candlestick Park by defeating the Oakland Dyna-Mites, 13-0.

The two Pop Warner football teams provided the halftime entertainment at the Oakland-Boston AFL football game. As usual, the Raiders lost.

The Thunderbirds had a 6-2 record during the past season. After kicking off to Oakland, halfback Bill Davis intercepted a fourth down pass and ran it back 35 yards for a touchdown. He also banged over the extra point.

The next time Oakland had the ball, they fumbled and defensive end Howard Gravelle recovered on the Oakland 30. On the first play, wingback Roger Montalbano took the final handoff on a double reverse and raced down the sidelines for the TD.

DVC Awards Banquet

Diablo Valley College held its annual Awards Banquet for the football and cross country teams last night on the college campus.

lost to Las Lomas by the same score.

Led by Paul Fitzgerald and Terry Hensen with eight points each, it bounced back to maul Amador, 41-24. However, last Friday it met defeat at the hands of the Del Valle B's, 39-30.

The College Park Frosh team won two in a row and then dropped one to Pacifica, 32-26.

Victories were previously scored over Mt. Diablo, 38-30, and Pleasant Hill in a real tight one, 28-27.

Falcons Post Third Win; Devils Upset Acalanes

Acalanes was dumped from the unbeaten ranks by Mt. Diablo Tuesday, 56-48, while resurgent College Park rolled to its third straight win, downing undefeated Alhambra, 40-35.

In the other local game, San Ramon, with three regulars on the sidelines, was crushed by St. Elizabeth's, 63-28.

MT. DIABLO 56 Acalanes 48

Mt. Diablo unleashed a potent offense in the middle period to outdistance the Dons who were after their third straight win in a game played at Concord.

The difference in the score was made at the free throw line where the Red Devils connected on an unbelievable 26 of 29 attempts.

Acalanes hit on 14 of 26 attempts. The Dons outscored Diablo, 34-30, from the floor.

Mt. Diablo outscored Acalanes, 18-12, in the second quarter and then iced the game by rolling up 19 points in the third stanza while the Dons could gather only nine. The score was 11-11 at the close of the opening quarter.

Acalanes made a comeback in the fourth quarter after Diablo's playmaking guard Fred Crummett was hurt and left the game, but it was a case of too little and much too late.

The Devils held a 48-33 lead at the end of three quarters. John Paul Jones paced the Dons with 19 points. Bill Hays had 11 and Walt Cardinet had 10.

Dick Embick, with four field goals in the third period, was the player who hurt the Dons the most in that disastrous eighth quarter.

The Dons had trailed by as many as 13 points in the second period, but came back with 1 1/2 minutes to play with six straight points. All hopes for a come-from-behind win were dashed quickly at the start of the third period by Embick and company, however.

COLLEGE PARK 40 ALHAMBRA 35

After running a string of consecutive losses to 21 with two opening defeats, College Park has now rolled up three straight wins.

The Falcons' victim Tuesday was Alhambra, winner of its first two games.

The Falcons suffered a cold second period and had to come from behind to take the win.

The Bulldogs held a 23-17 lead at halftime after the first quarter ended in a 12-12 deadlock.

The Parkers suffered a shooting letdown at the free throw line that enabled the Martinez quintet to take the lead.

College Park missed five straight charity tosses at the end of the quarter and missed eight of nine attempts in the period.

Alhambra scored three rapid-fire two-pointers near the end of the half to pull away at that time.

In the third period, the rebounding of Roger Mower and Mickey Sytkowski turned the tide as the Parkers stormed to a 28-27 lead going into the final period.

In the final period, the two teams traded one-point leads until the Falcons scored two quick baskets for a five-point bulge with about three minutes to play.

Sytkowski and Wallen each made five points in the final eight minutes.

Game statistics showed the Parkers with a 54-34 edge in rebounding which probably tells the story of the game.

With the rebounding edge, the Parkers got off 62 shots to only 47 for Alhambra, but managed to connect on only 16 while the Bulldogs had 14 field goals.

College Park was plenty cold from the free throw line, too. They hit on eight of 22 while Alhambra made seven of 15.

Mower finished with 10 points to pace the Falcons.

ST. ELIZABETH'S 63 SAN RAMON 28

With two regulars not even dressed and the tallest man playing only half of the game, San Ramon was no match for a fast-breaking St. Elizabeth team Tuesday afternoon in Danville. Coach Larry DeRushia had guard Bob Metz recuperating from an operation and forward Don Rice home with the flu Tuesday. Center Jim Howell played only half the game because of a sprained ankle.

Howell still managed to score eight points which was high for the Wolves.

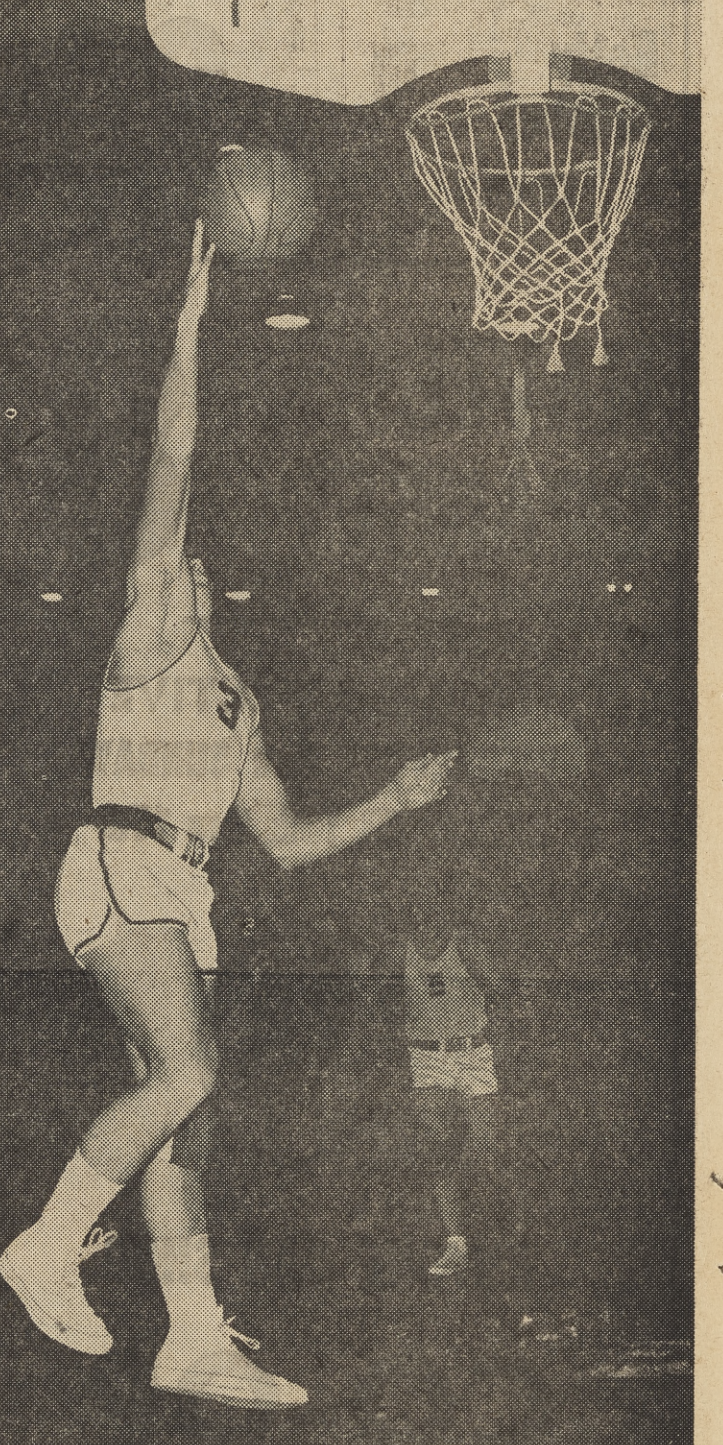

Forward Pat Furlong was the only St. Elizabeth player in double figures, but he almost outscored the Wolves single-handed. He got 27.

The loss was San Ramon's third in five outings.

St. Elizabeth wasted no time getting out in front and they coasted to a comfortable 16-6 lead at the quarter.

San Ramon could not cope with the visitors' fast break and trailed 32-11 at the half.

In the third period, the Wolves almost kept even by scoring 12 points, but in the fourth quarter it was the story of the first half as they could muster just five points.

AN EASY two-pointer is racked up by Las Lomas guard Perry Conner as he goes up for the layup all alone in the Knights' opening win against College Park. Following the play is Conner's running mate at guard, Greg Bertagnoli, who set up the basket by stealing the ball at midcourt. Las Lomas won easily, 60-35, but since then have lost twice. The Falcons also have done a turnabout, winning three straight games. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

The Ski Line . . .

Remember the Old Skiing Trips and Adventures?

By HEC HANCOCK

Watching a high flying jet cut a beautiful christy across the twilight sky, I got to thinking of the many things that have happened to skiing over the years. As the white contrails were etched against the blue December sky, I began to recall with no little nostalgia on ski scenes over the years.

As I rummaged up little odds and ends of yesteryear's ski slopes, I began to wonder how many, or rather how few, there are around to swap ski lies with these days.

For instance, how many recall the "Snow Ball Specials" the friendly Southern Pacific used to run on weekends. You would catch the train at the 16th St. Depot in Oakland, and would arrive in Norden at approximately 8 a.m. the next morning, "ready" for the ski slopes.

I SAY "ready" advisedly, because it was party time the entire way up, without a blessed wink of sleep for anyone.

You were younger then, though, and off skiing you did go. Off to Sugar Bowl, with the only chair lift in California. A modern-day miracle no less.

Mad man Hannes Schroll was the skimeister. Hannes, fresh from Austria, was already a legend, as he tried to schuss every mountain in the Sierra. Sometimes he made it.

The Blatt brothers, who went on to Olympic team fame, were just getting started.

I'LL BET there aren't many that recall the jumping scaffolding "down in Truckee. That rickety pile of timbers looked like it stuck up in the air about 1000 feet. It took a brave man just to climb it, a nut or something to slide down its runway and jump.

But jump they did, and such as Sig Ullen, a transplanted Norwegian who had settled in Truckee, won national acclaim. There weren't as many resorts, but since it was a new sport there weren't as many skiers.

Oscar Jones ran the Soda Springs Hotel. While Soda Springs is still a haven for snow bunnies today, it was the big spot before the war.

Then there was the House of Vandenberg, perched right on top of Hiway 40 as it crossed Donner Summit. It had a rugged, rough hewn character about it, together with a wonderful warm hospitality. The college groups would gather in front of the huge fireplace during the evening for a cup of cheer and a skiing song or so.

The skiers today are better, the equipment now is far superior, and there are more skiing areas.

However, I can't say the skiing is any better or any more fun now or then.

Gray Stars as SMC Splits First 4 Games

St. Mary's College, loser in the final 44 seconds to Cal three days earlier, took out its wrath on UC's sister school at Santa Barbara, 86-59, Saturday night in Moraga.

Tonight, the Galloping Gaels open play in City of Roses Basketball Tournament in Portland. Host school is Portland with Seattle and Houston rounding out the four-team slate.

Steve Gray, doing a great job of filling Tom Meschery's shoes, paced the Gaels to their win Saturday night by scoring 26 points.

He has now scored 105 points in four games. He netted 28 in the losing cause against Cal. He also scored 25 in the Gaels' losing effort at Stanford.

St. Mary's is now 2-2 for the year as they defeated Sacramento State in its opener.

The Moraga quintet had a 52-27 halftime lead against UCSB and coach Jim Weaver cleared his bench in the second half. In all, 13 players saw action with 11 making the scoring column. Gray made nine field goals and eight free throws while grabbing off 11 rebounds.

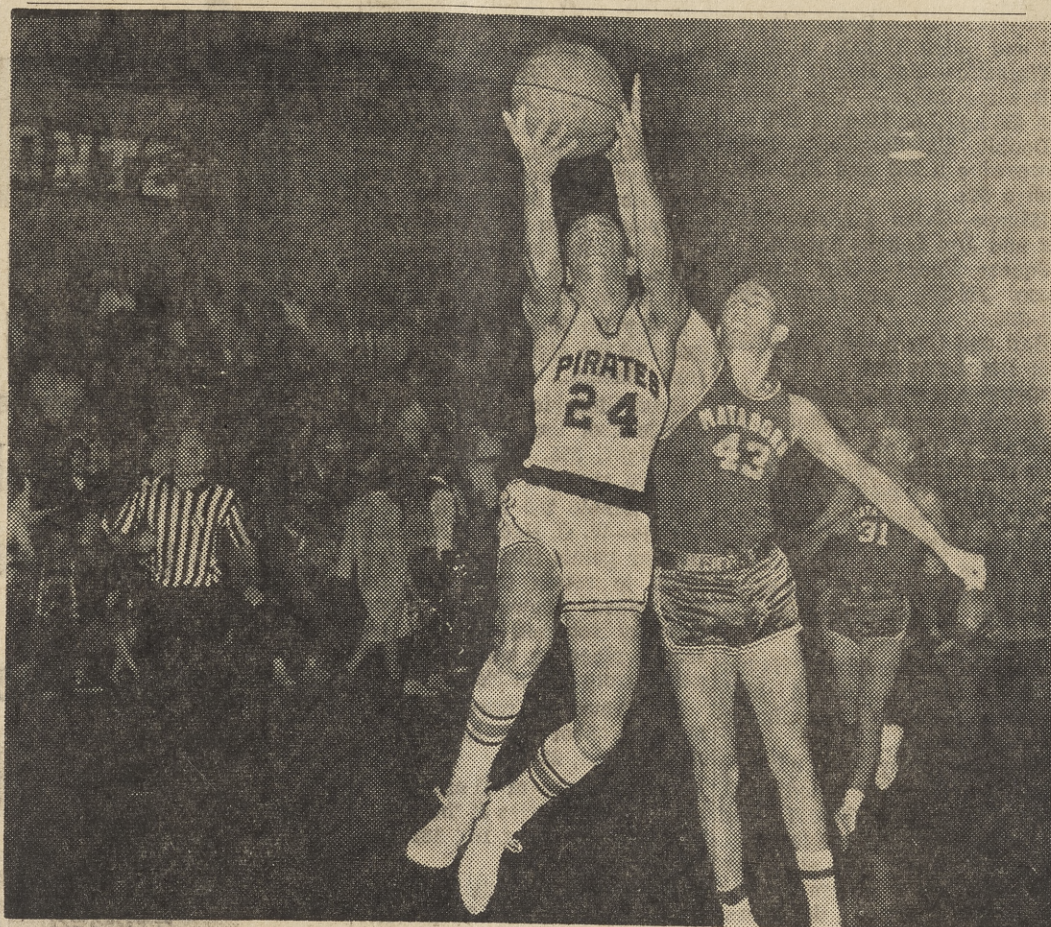

The game was the final one on the Moraga campus for the Gaels. The rest of their home contests will be played at the Oakland auditorium.

Following the Portland tourney, the Gaels travel to the University of Utah on the 23rd before competing in the West Coast Athletic Conference tourney after Christmas at the University of San Francisco.

Preps Play Final Practice Games

DESPITE the all-out effort of Miramonte's Mike McQuaid (43), Pittsburg guard, Frank Bruno (24), drove through for a two-pointer on this play. The Matadors managed to overcome defensive lapses like this to record their first win of the season, 50-44, over the Pirates in the consolation game of the Miramonte Tournament last Saturday night. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

DVC Loses First Game

Sacramento City College handed Diablo Valley College its first defeat of the season after five straight wins, 43-31, Tuesday night in the capitol city.

The Vikings trailed all the way, down by 15 points at the half, 30-15.

Tonight the Viks visit Oakland City College in final preparation for the Coast Conference Tournament Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Foothill College in Mountain View.

Sam Costen paced DVC against SCC with 11 points. Dick Dole had six.

Neither team did much shooting in the low-scoring contest. Sacramento hit on 14 of 37 shots while DVC connected on 12 of 34. The big difference was at the free throw line where DVC had seven of 12 and SCC had 15 of 23.

IN GAMES last weekend, the Vikings dumped Modesto Junior College, 63-50, Friday and the San Jose State College Frosh team, 45-25.

DVC had only a 27-26 lead over Modesto at the half, but ran with the contest in the after the intermission as Tom Nichols (11 points), George Smylie (11) and Coston (9) showed the way.

Visitors Walk Off With Local Tournament Titles

The host teams didn't fare too well in two prep tournaments held last weekend.

At Miramonte, Livermore walked off with top honors while in the Mid-Valley Classic, St. Ignatius was picked as the top team in the four-team field.

The Mid-Valley Classic divided its games between the Pleasant Hill and Mt. Diablo courts with a "jury" of three observers naming the classic's outstanding team.

St. Ignatius didn't leave much room for error as they dumped co-host Pleasant Hill on the first night, 47-42, and the other co-host, Mt. Diablo, 52-42, the second evening. The Rams and the Red Devils both scored wins over Gridley.

The classic does not match winners and losers following the opening night of action, but rather just switches partners the second night. The three-man committee is then asked to pick the top team.

AT MIRAMONTE, the Matadors couldn't win their own tourney, but did manage to pick up their first win of the season after three straight losses.

On Friday night, the Mats lost a tough, 28-23, verdict to Galileo of San Francisco in the feature game.

In the opening game of the evening, Livermore dumped Pittsburg, 54-46, in a rematch of last year's DVAL playoff which the Cowboys also won. The Pirates won the CCD crown last March while the Cowboys annexed the East Bay crown of the two-division DVAL. Livermore then bested the Pirates in a playoff to determine who would go to the Tournament of Champions.

Livermore came back the second night to cop the tourney crown, edging ball-controlling Galileo, 29-28.

The Miramonte-Galileo game followed the pattern of previous Matador games. The Orinda quintet lost 35-34 and 32-30 decisions prior to the tournament games.

Galileo held a 15-14 lead at the end of the half as Miramonte could score only one field goal while the Lions picked up three.

Midway through the final period, the Mats pulled into a 21-21 deadlock, but a Galileo basket and several free throws put the Lions on top to stay.

AGAINST Pittsburg, the Mats erupted for 24 points in the second quarter as they broke loose from a pressing defense for a number of easy layups.

The Mats led 33-24 at the half. The Pirates came back strong in the third period to go one point up, but Miramonte spurted with six straight points to go ahead to stay.

Mike McQuaid paced the Mats with 21 points. McQuaid and Bob Williams of Miramonte were named to the all-tournament team along with Erwin Mueller, 6-7 Livermore center, Frank Bruno of Pitt and Walt Williams of Galileo.

Pleasant Hill was paced by Mark Kimball in both games. He topped the scoring against St. Ignatius with eight points. Ken Friedenback, Dennis Barry, Al Oxley and Glen Graham all had six.

Kimball came back with 12 points against Gridley as the Rams won, 31-29.

Mt. Diablo defeated Gridley Friday night, 43-23.

Doubleheaders at College Park and Clayton Valley

All local prep teams see action for the last time in 1961 this weekend as they prepare to take a holiday break.

The Foothill loop begins league competition on January 2, the first day of classes after the holidays.

The Contra Costa division of the DVAL opens a week later on the 9th.

Featured action on a light schedule this evening is at College Park where a doubleheader is being offered.

The Falcons will play in the feature game at 8:30 p.m. against Oroville while Clayton Valley and Fremont clash in the 7 p.m. game.

SATURDAY night, the teams move over to Clayton Valley and switch partners. College Park will face Fremont at 7 and the Eagles will battle Oroville at 8:30 p.m.

College Park is on the comeback trail now after it looked as if they would keep up a losing habit begun in earnest last season.

The Parkers, who were 1-19 in 1960-61, ran last season's 18-game losing streak to 20 this season before dumping Amador last week. They evened their Bonnicksen has relied on just six men in his string of wins.

Mickey Stykowski, the Falcons' leading scorer last year, Art Miller, Dennis Walen and Bob Ament have been the mainstays to date.

This afternoon in Lafayette, Acalanes gets its final test before starting league play January 5 as A. A. Stagg High of Stockton plays a visit.

GAME TIME is 3 p.m.

Stagg has a 4-2 record to date and coach Bert Barnett figures the Stockton quintet to be the toughest his team will face this year.

The Stagg front line boasts two 6-4 boys and the starting five is an all-senior outfit.

The Dons, with a 2-1 record, have shown considerable talent in spots, but their play has been spotty for the most part.

Their backcourt combination of John Paul Jones and Walt Cardinet leaves little to be desired and if center Bill Higgins is on his game, the Dons could be rough on any team.

Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill are the only other local teams in action this evening—and they're on the road.

PLEASANT HILL, sporting a 2-2 record, pay a visit to John Swett High while the Knights hope to get untracked at the Anderson Tournament.

The Knights opened play last night and will play games tonight and tomorrow, win or lose. Tonight, Las Lomas faces either Orland or Enterprise after meeting Red Bluff last night.

After opening with a win over College Park, the Knights have suffered defeats in the final period to Pleasant Hill and Amador.

Mrs. Small Has Best Score in Diablo Meet

Mrs. Joseph Small fired a low gross score of 87 to take top honors in the Guest Day, Medal Sweepstakes Tournament at Diablo Country Club last week.

Mrs. Jack Dawson was the winner in Class A with a 92-17-76. Mrs. Wayne Carter (91-14-77) and Mrs. A. M. Kaiser (94-17-77) tied for second place. Mrs. J. De Costa (95-17-78) was third.

In Class B, Mrs. Boise Ketchem took first place with a 91-18-78.

She was followed by Mesdames Bailey Justice (96-18-78), William True (98-18-78), Roger Sears (100-22-78) and Gordon Van Nuys (102-24-78).

Mrs. Mark Hull and Mrs. David White tied for the No. 1 spot in Class C.

Mrs. Hull had a 103-26-77 while Mrs. White fired a 100-32-77. Mesdames Victor McFarland (103-25-78), Bert Sandberg (103-25-78) and J. Zimmerman (104-26-78) tied for third place.

Hole-in-One for Assistant Pro

Assistant pro Don Wilson scored a hole-in-one last week at Walnut Hills Country Club. The ace came on the fourth hole.

Down the Alley... 70-Year-Old Grandma Has 201 at Walnut Bowl

In spite of the nine 600 series recorded last week at the Walnut Bowl, the nomination for "Bowler of the Week" is Marian MacArthur. Marian, a 70-year-old grandmother, bowled her first 200 in league play last Tuesday in the Early Birds League. She had a nice 201 score.

Marian, who bowls twice a week, displays as much enthusiasm for the game as any of her younger counterparts, and was overly elated over her latest achievement.

The 600 series were recorded by Gene Waddell and Don Mackie of the Episcopal Mixed League. Gene hit the pins for 231-606 and Don was more consistent with games of 213-202-201 for 616.

Jim Vanderveen of the RVW 775 Handicap League hit 208-612. Fourcaster prexy Earl Lindsey topped the maples for 217-603 last Tuesday.

In the junior majors last Wednesday, Gar Cummings hit 615 by way of a 220 single. Roy Johnson a 223-603, Harry Thornberry a 225-601 and Fred Hallock managed his first league 600 series with 211-609. On Friday night, Jimmy De Rade blistered the lanes for a 231-616 in the Ball and Chain League.

Top single game of the week was bowled by Bob Stout of the DV 757 Handicap League with a 249 game.

Rett-White Ford captured high team series with a 2722 effort in the junior majors on games of 892, 896 and 934.

The closest game of the week was between the Schroeder Insurance team and Diablo Bowling Supply of the Walnut Scratcher 572 Ladies' Foursome. It was neck and neck until the last gal, with the insurance team winning 697 to 690. Betty Wakeman paced the Schroeder attack with a nice 198 game.

Paced by Bill Frech's 181 average and Stan Williams' 180, the Walnut Creek Pharmacy team won the first half of the Diablo Scratcher 782 League. The other teams finished as follows: Indian Mutual Insurance, Harry Compton Trophies, California Neon, Sierra Bus Lines, Harrison Jewelry, Pulver Recapping, Barney Gilbert Realtor, Regal Stations, Mazzetti Rambler, Carlos Tile, Action Pest Control, Ethyl Recreation Corporation and Russ Barber Shop.

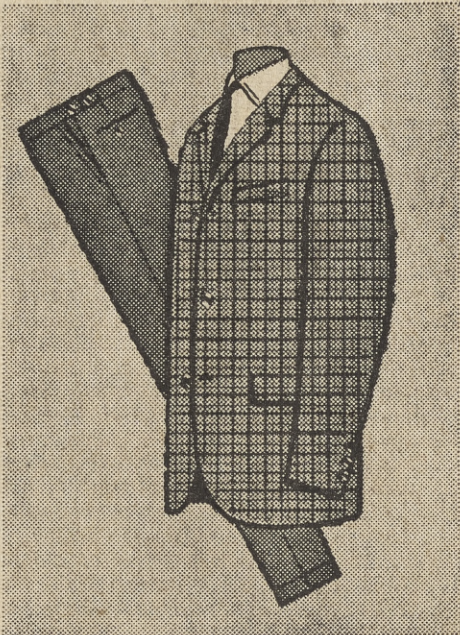

Other League scores:
Episcopal Mixed—Laura Gartner 191-513.
RVW Handicap—Matt Gonzales a 219.
Guys and Dolls—Issie Wamosh 190-514 for the Dolls and Archie Traynor a 541.
Merrie Monday—Rita Lang led with 483, and Betty Abono had high single with 184.
Walnut Scratchers—Lynn Neill

a 191-534.
Diablo Scratchers—Dick Lubbing 205-590 and Dan Bernard 225.
Gutterdusters—Lee Campbell 226-579.

Property Is Available for Heavy Industry

Nine Contra Costa County industries, with property in excess of their immediate needs, are willing to sell or lease land to satellite or customer industries. Service Committee, according to G. C. Stanley of the Contra Costa County Development Association's Industrial "but their willingness to accommodate firms in their fields will by the association's staff last summer to determine the major water supply, taxation, air and common problems confronting Contra Costa industry. Forty seven of the 156 small and large plants surveyed re- turned the questionnaires. Major problems, Stanley said, involve water pollution. He added that the next meeting of association directors be held at one of the county's major plants and California and Hawaiian Sugar Corporation at Crockett was selected for a plant tour.

Schools Less Crowded

Overcrowding has been substantially reduced in the schools of Contra Costa County by shifts in population and the construction of 33 additional school plants in the past five years. According to the office of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus, 24 new elementary schools have been occupied since 1956, two discontinued by Richmond City School District, and four new junior high or intermediate schools and five high schools constructed. Double session has subsided to its lowest point yet — 739 children in grades one or two in four districts — Danville Union, Mt. Diablo Unified, San Pablo and Walnut Creek. This is in contrast to the post-World War II peak of almost 15,000 children on double session, in nearly all schools and in grades up through the sixth. A corresponding decrease has occurred since 1956 in school plants with large enrollment. There are 26,000 more students in the schools of Contra Costa County today but one each fewer elementary and junior high schools with enrollment exceeding 1000. In 1956 two elementary schools and six junior high schools in Richmond, plus El Portal School in San Pablo and Parkmead School in Walnut Creek were over the 1000 mark. Today's schools in this category are as follows: Ygnacio Valley School, Mt. Diablo Unified, 1706; Mira Vista, 1092, and Peres, 1203, both Richmond; Pleasant Hill Intermediate, Mt. Diablo Unified, 1027; Downer Junior High, 1420; Helms Junior High, 1584; Portola Junior High, 1686; and Roosevelt Junior High, 1275, all of Richmond. Among the high schools, the number exceeding 2000 enrollment has doubled in five years. High schools in this category, with the 1956 enrollment in parentheses where it exceeded 2000, are as follows: Mt. Diablo, 2140 (2187); Richmond, 2848 (2673); Clayton Valley, Mt. Diablo Unified, 2076; and De Anza, Richmond High School District, 2132. Both campuses of the Contra Costa Junior College District also exceed 2000 full-time enrollment. The figures, with 1956 totals in parentheses, are: Contra Costa at San Pablo, 2186 (1371); and Diablo Valley at Concord, 2713 (1095).

HIGHWAYS

More than 11,250 miles of the 41,000-mile National System of Interstate and Defense Highways are now open to traffic, reports the National Automobile Club. Construction is underway on another 4,800 miles.

BULL ELK

A mature bull elk can weigh up to 700 or even 1,000 pounds, according to the National Automobile Club.

DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

Christmas is in the air—and who's going to celebrate? This year, why not plan a tree-trimming party at your house? Takes no time at all, when everyone pitches in. And when the tree is wreathed in all its splendor, bring in a high, light heavenly angel cake, swirled with poinsettias. Here's a crowning glory of a cake to climax your gay party.

Cake-of-the-week: CHRISTMAS ANGEL

Prepare Betty Crocker Angel Food Cake Mix batter as directed. Fold in 1/4 cup finely chopped nuts. Bake in 10" tube pan as directed. Frost top and sides with Mint Cream Topping: Whip 1/4 cup mint jelly with fork until it forms a thin syrup. Whip 1 1/2 cups whipping cream and 1/4 cup sifted confectioners' sugar. Fold jelly into whipped cream. Frost sides and top of cake. Whip about 2 more tbsp. red jelly to swirl into the shape of poinsettias.

Family Favorite: ALMOND RUM CAKE

Make batter as directed on Betty Crocker White Cake Mix pkg.—except fold in 1/4 cup chopped almonds. Bake as directed in oblong pan, 13x9x2". Cool. Cut in half. (This makes two 9x6 1/2" pieces.) Fill and frost with Betty Crocker Chocolate Fudge Flavor Frosting Mix to which 2 to 3 tsp. rum flavoring have been added. Decorate top with almond slices.

Hot 'n hearty: APPLESAUCE-SPICE CAKE

Good any chilly day—served hot from the oven! Prepare Betty Crocker Honey Spice Cake Mix batter as directed—except stir 1/4 tsp. soda into mix before adding water and eggs. Use only 3/4 cup water. ## Heavy, Rich Foods Pose Holiday Risk

Well-intentioned dieters often run into trouble during the holiday season when rich meals and party foods make their appearance.

To help those cooks who have family members on fat controlled diets or weight reducing diets, the Contra Costa Heart Association has available, free of charge, a set of holiday menus and recipes for low calorie foods.

A festive dinner menu, complete with recipes, consists of lemon baked chicken, baked grated carrots, spicy Brussels sprouts, celery Victor, hot yeast rolls, and cranberry pudding with orange sauce.

A luncheon or supper menu includes macaroni supreme, dilly green beans, molded cranberry salad, lemon sherbert and walnut meringues.

There is a page of holiday baking recipes utilizing oil and a minimum of eggs which includes caramel squares, rolled oats cookies, holiday spice bars and French meringues. Holiday snacks that add up to fewer calories than the usual dips and hors d'oeuvres include chili dip, cottage cheese dip, stuffed tomatoes, stuffed cucumber cases, spiced pineapple pickups and a holiday nut mix.

The controlled fat holiday menus are available from the Contra Costa County Heart Association headquarters at 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, or may be obtained by phone.

THE LIVING ROOM SOFA is a comfortable spot for the Charles Ivy family after they've come from Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, where both Charles and Diane are members of the choir and daughter Sandra, 14, a contralto soloist with the church's Youth Choir group. Son Ron, a Glorietta 6th grader, leaves the singing to the rest of the family and wins his medals as a champion swimmer for the Aquabears and his merit badges as an A-1 Scout of Orinda Troop 200. An insurance broker, Ivy is a member of the Church Council, an Orinda Rotarian, a past president of Orinda Tennis Club, an ardent tennis player (with his own court out the back door). Diane served on the former Mothers' Club board, was first president of Glorietta Parents' Club, is a member of the Lutheran women's guild. When they're not singing or playing the piano, perusing antique automobile books or playing tennis, they're taking a dip in the pool, out back, too, at their home of ten years at 16 Greenwood Court.

Students Send Gifts, Befriend Navajo Children

Students at Inland Valley Elementary School will experience the joy of sending Christmas gifts to children who otherwise would not have any way to mark this special holiday season.

Those on the receiving end of this project are 450 Navajo Indian youngsters who attend the Kayenta Boarding School located on the Navajo Indian Reservation at Kayenta, Arizona.

Every boy and girl at Inland Valley has been given the name of an Indian child. Toys have been gone through at home and an appropriate selection made for a gift. This Christmas, every boy and girl at the Kayenta School will receive a gift with his name marked on the outside from a new friend in Orinda.

Mayflower Van and Storage provided cartons for packing the gifts; Delta and Navajo Freight Lines will ship them to Kayenta on December 15.

To help generate interest in the Christmas project, Donald Manuel, President of the Inland Valley Parents' Club, showed colored slides to the students of the Navajo children at Kayenta. Navajo handiwork and appropriate library books have also been on display at Inland Valley.

Principal Donald Hardy stated that both teachers and students are extremely enthusiastic over Project Christmas.

In presenting the idea to the Parents' Club, Manuel said, "The Department of Interior provides the necessities of life for 450 Indian children who live at Kayenta School from fall until spring. While their care is adequate, there is no provision made for the extra things which make the special seasons of the year more meaningful.

Accordingly, we felt that gifts to the Navajo children at Christmas would give our youngsters the feeling of pleasure that can come only when we share with someone less fortunate than we."

Miss Anderson To Miami For Orange Bowl

Refuse Collection Will Be Day Late

Garbage and refuse disposal service will be one day late during the Christmas and New Year weeks, according to an announcement by the Orinda Garbage and Refuse Disposal Service.

The program is planned to give an understanding of the country of Pakistan. For several years, Mrs. Miller was in charge of running a volunteer medical women and children.

Preceding the talk, a film on clinic in Karachi, Pakistan, for the country of Pakistan, which will depict missionary work in that area, will be shown. Then Mrs. Miller will discuss some of the problems involved in living there.

She will show the group handcraft materials, art work, clothes worn by the people of Pakistan, and other items of interest.

The hostess for the meeting is Mrs. Eugene Schultz of 3567 Silver Spring Road, Lafayette. The meeting will be held at her home. Time of the meeting is 7:45 p.m. Those interested in attending the meeting and needing transportation are asked to call Mrs. Ted Webb, YE 4-7703.

CHOOSING the man or woman to be named Man of the Year is not an easy task, as the committee discovers as they deliberate nominations. Shown from left are Kenneth Courtwright, Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, chairman, and Harry Fledderman. Nominations for the honor may be phoned or mailed to this committee or to The Sun.

'Instant' Piano Is Offered

A new rapid piano course for adults will be offered by Aca-lanes Adult Education program on January 2, 7 to 10 p.m., announced W. E. Teutschel, principal.

This is the same quick piano instruction being given by city adult schools throughout California designed to teach adults how to play ballads, popular music, waltzes, and other light fare.

The class will meet once a week from 7 to 10 p.m., and will be taught personally by Chuck Dutton. If there is sufficient demand, additional classes will be organized.

This is not a standard piano playing course and will not enable students to play classics.

The method to be used, devised by Chuck Dutton, Berkeley musician and piano teacher, is believed to eliminate about 90 per cent of the usual learning process and is aimed at adults who have no formal music background but want to learn to play for their own enjoyment.

Fight Against Heart Diseases Needs Cash

Amazing developments in research are under way in the fight to conquer the heart diseases, according to the Contra Costa Heart Association.

A research scientist is working on the development of a vaccine against rheumatic fever and certain kidney infections. Now undergoing tests in eight centers across the country is a machine that can be used to treat heart failure by working as a "booster" heart to enable the heart to pump more blood with each beat.

DESIGNED for hospital use only, this self-regulating machine that can restart a stopped heart or assist a failing heart made its first public appearance at the Scientific Sessions of the American Heart Association in October.

The machine increases circulation at a time when an adequate blood flow may be the critical factor in determining survival.

Another machine, which has been tested on animals and on which trial in patients has begun, is a "mechanical heart" that takes part of the burden of work from disease-damaged heart and may permit lifesaving healing and recovery following severe heart attacks and other conditions causing acute heart failure.

Less dramatic, but equally vital research, is concerned with studies of diet, stress, care of stroke patients, heredity and countless other factors which may bear some relation to diseases of the heart.

TO SUPPORT research of this sort, the Heart Association chapters in California alone contributed over a million dollars raised by the annual Heart Fund drives conducted in February of 1961.

Dr. Floyd Marchus, Contra Costa County Heart Fund chairman, noting the immense strides made in heart research, commented, "Research is a very costly procedure. Each year this county hopes to raise more funds to further scientific advances so that more people may live."

He pointed out that the annual Heart Fund drive will be conducted in February.

The chairman expressed his appreciation to those who contributed to research with the purchase of the Association's Christmas cards this season. "Each year, as more people wish to make their holiday greetings more meaningful, we have more orders for our cards," he said.

AFTER THE cost of the greeting cards is deducted, the total amount of the contribution is channeled into research.

Dr. Marchus also called attention to another means of supporting heart research. This is the memorial gift program. He suggested a gift in memory of a loved one during the season of gift giving or at the start of the New Year.

Memorial gifts may be made to the Contra Costa County Heart Association, 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, or 6806 Cutting Boulevard, El Cerrito.

340 Crippled Children and Adults Helped

Some 340 crippled children and adults of Contra Costa County received services from the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County during the past year. Of these 226 were children.

Disabilities served included: cerebral palsy, arthritis, poliomyelitis, muscular dystrophy, speech defects, deafness, and hard of hearing, blind and partially sighted, epilepsy, cardiac conditions and mental retardation.

Firm Plans to Build 486 New Homes in CCC

Merrill J. Nikkel, president of Glencourt Homes, Lafayette, announced today that his organization plans to build 486 homes in Contra Costa County during the calendar year 1962.

Present plans call for 144 to be built in Concord; 59 in the Lafayette area; 164 in Walnut Creek; 78 in Pleasant Hill and 41 will be constructed on spot lots throughout the county.

Bids will be accepted from all sub-contractors and suppliers during the ensuing two-week period with the plans on file at the offices of the Home Builders Association of Contra Costa County, 3462 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Lafayette.

"The excellent future of Contra Costa County was the determining factor for the formulation of our plans to extend our program during the coming year," he said.

Reddy answers "most asked" questions about

electric blankets

Q. Do you really sleep better with an electric blanket?

A. Almost everyone does. An electric blanket spreads just the right warmth evenly over the entire bed. And with just one light covering, there's no "blanket wrasslin'" ... you sleep soundly, wake up refreshed!

Q. How do you control the warmth?

A. An electric blanket lets you dial the sleeping comfort that suits you best. Just turn the blanket on each night—the control does the rest, automatically maintaining the temperature you set.

Q. What about dual controls?

A. You can buy an electric blanket for a double bed with two controls—one control for each half of the blanket. This way, husband and wife can each select the sleeping comfort desired.

Q. How do you make a bed with an electric blanket?

A. Some models have contour corners for perfect fit. Others spread across the bed like an ordinary blanket. Either way, bedmaking is easier with just one blanket.

Q. Can they be washed?

A. Yes—just follow the manufacturer's instructions. Made of cotton, rayon, nylon and the new synthetic fibers, they dry soft, fluffy and ready to spread.

Q. What sizes are available?

A. You can get "twin," "double" and "king" size (twice twin-bed size). Both single and dual controls are available on double bed sizes.

Q. How much does an electric blanket cost?

A. Cost varies with size and quality, but the average price is $20. And, of course, you need only one electric blanket, no matter how cold it gets.

Q. What does it cost to operate?

A. About a penny a night, thanks to PG&E's bargain rates for electricity—a mighty small price for a good night's sleep!

Unicyclists Perform At Christmas Parties

The Diablo Valley Unicycle Club are appearing in three Christmas performances during the holiday season.

The young unicyclists performed Wednesday evening for Cub Scout Pack 210 at the Ygnacio Valley School.

The club will appear in the East Bay Municipal Utility District Christmas party for employees' children tomorrow in Oakland.

This show will be held at the Oakland High School auditorium.

On December 23, the youngsters will perform at the Glenbrook Intermediate School. A children's Christmas party will be given there by the Sun Terrace Homeowners Association, Concord.

The Unicycle Club consists of 20 youngsters ranging in age from six to 16 years old. Dick Rickon of Walnut Creek is the instructor and drill master.

The club has developed a 45-minute to an hour show to perform locally and eventually at the World's Fair in Seattle in 1962.

Two months ago the club received and accepted an invitation to appear at the "Century 21" in Seattle, Washington next year.

However, the club must raise its own funds to cover expenses. The group is a non-profit organization and must rely entirely upon donations and fund raising projects to cover its expenses.

To date the club has had two bake sales which have given a good start to the club's "World's Fair Fund." Most recently it has received two donations of $25 each.

One donation is from the Sun

Terrace Homeowners Association and the other from Peter Garcia Pumps on Willow Pass Road both of Concord.

Groups wishing an appearance of the Unicycle Club may write to: Diablo Valley Unicycle Club, P.O. Box 1123, Concord.

Vanishing Patriots Are Admonished

"Vanishing Patriotism" was the title of the speech which won top honors for Bob Davis at last week's meeting of the Diablo Toastmaster's Club.

In his talk Bob exhorted all loyal Americans to proudly proclaim their faith in their country by voice and deed.

Howard Watanabe took home the Table Topics Trophy for his impromptu discourse on the relationship of Japan and the United States since Pearl Harbor and World War II.

Frank Curtis was awarded the Boot and Spur for his evaluation of Bob Ballock's speech.

By virtue of uttering too many vocal pauses, Ray Davis was declared "Wizard of Ah's" and John Saemahn captured the Yakkity Yak award for consuming the most time to express his thoughts.

Club President Byrd Thysell welcomed former Alex Karim back.

John Oddy and Vic Brodigan functioned as table topics master and toastmaster, respectively, and Bill Williamson was general evaluator.

Memorial Fund Established for Joseph Dame

A memorial fund for Joseph Dame (De-May), who died Monday near Pleasant Hill, will be established by the two La Morinda Thunderbird teams and their families, it was announced Wednesday.

Dame was a founder of the first Pop Warner football team for boys 11 to 15 years old, and president of the East Bay Division of Pop Warner Leagues. Friends say his death occurred when he was coaching basketball for a group of boys, typical of his life of service to young people.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday at 2 p.m. in the Mt. View Chapel by Reverend Albert S. Heidy, Jr. with entombment in the Mt. View Mausoleum.

Dame, 41, lived at 211 Jennifer Way, Pleasant Hill. He is survived by his widow, Susie; a daughter, Nan Hollinger, and a son, Michael. His brother, Carl, lives at 3 Meadowlands Court, Orinda.

He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Orinda Rotary Club and Colombo Club.

La Morinda Thunderbirds and their families plan to use the memorial fund to establish a perpetual trophy in Joseph Dame's memory. The trophy, appropriately engraved, will be handed on from year to year to a designated "best sportsman."

Here's Chance To Cut Your Own Yule Log

Need a nice, fat Yule log? Here's your opportunity.

Because rain has reduced the danger of fire, the East Bay Municipal Utility District has reopened a part of the Briones area for public woodcutting. The wood consists of trees dropped and piled during the clearing of the Briones reservoir site. It's free for the taking, but you'll have to bring your own saw.

Bill Hartman, East Bay Water land maintenance superintendent, said the area designated for public cutting is near the intersection of Briones Road and Bear Creek Road. Direction signs are posted. Temporary sanitary facilities have been set up for the public's convenience.

Hartman said woodcutting will be allowed until further notice. He asked that cutters work only in areas designated by signs and he noted that East Bay Water cannot be responsible for the safety of those entering or working with the area.

Motorists can reach the area from Lafayette via Upper Happy Valley Road, from the north via Pinole Valley and Break Creek Road.

How to Keep Libraries Quiet, Yet Friendly?

All community branch and station libraries in the Contra Costa Country Library system will be closed all day December 16 to enable all personnel to attend an in-service training conference scheduled in the Central-Pleasant Hill Library by Mrs. Bertha D. Hellum, county librarian.

Staff members from the 22 branch and station libraries will join the Central-Pleasant Hill Library staff for this meeting at 8:30 a.m. in the main reading room of the new library at 1750 Oak Park Boulevard.

Topics covered will include current problems in public library book selection, trends in reference-information services, and the challenge faced in new libraries of maintaining an environment which is welcoming and at the same time conducive to quiet reading and study.

Easter Seal Society Has Decor Idea

Gilded and silvered manzanita branches which would add a bright note to the holiday decor of any home are on sale at the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County, 240 South Sixth Street, Richmond.

Shoppers may come to the Easter Seal Center Monday through Friday until Christmas between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Manzanita branches have been decorated by one of the auxiliary members, Mrs. Kenneth Williams. Their size and shape would be suitable for door or wall swags or small table trees.

Trainees of the Easter Seal Vocational Training Workshop will participate in a music appreciation and piano instruction program if a suitable piano can be obtained.

Mrs. Oscar Francen, well known Richmond music teacher, has volunteered to instruct.

Persons wishing to assist the music program for the workshop trainees through the donation or loan of a used piano in a reasonably good condition should call the Easter Seal Society.

CHRIS MADSEN of 2 Las Vegas Road, manager of all Safeway truck repair facilities in the Bay Area, was honored recently at a special dinner for his 30 years of service with the food firm. Quentin Reynolds, left, Safeway vice president, presented Madsen with a diamond set insignia.

'Anything Goes' Rehearsals Start

With casting completed, Contra Costa Musical Theatre members are energetically rehearsing for their production of "Anything Goes," by Cole Porter.

The musical theatre, working under the direction of W. Grant Gray of Walnut Creek and Bob Williams of Walnut Creek, will present the musical comedy on the weekends of January 5, 6, 12, 13 at Mt. Diablo High School auditorium.

Tickets are now available and may be purchased at Reilly's Music Store in Walnut Creek.

Working behind the scenes on the premier production are Herb Horton of Pleasant Hill, scenery; Mrs. June Heller of Concord, costumes and make-up; Mrs. Marie Michael of Concord, programs.

Margaret Fox of Lafayette, program design; Helen Denan of Walnut Creek, publicity; Vivian Myers and Dorothy Eppstein, both of Diablo, posters; Mrs. Natalie Solomon of Walnut Creek, promotion; and Jim Day of San Francisco, stage management and set design.

For your family,
Betty Crocker suggests a creamy smooth wheat cereal with a wonderful flavor—Wheat Hearts

Breakfast is the most important meal of the day, because it's the first. So it should be hearty and nourishing. That's one reason why Wheat Hearts is so popular here in the West. It gives you a hot, hearty breakfast with a good share of the protein and Vitamin B, you need every day.

And folks like Wheat Hearts for its distinctive flavor, too. It's a toasted, nut-like flavor that no other cereal can match.

Try it, with milk or cream and maybe a little honey. And remember, as Betty Crocker says:

"You and your family need a good, healthy breakfast to start you on your way . . . And the healthier your breakfast, the happier your day."

YMCA Opens Lots Selling Holiday Trees

Christmas tree lots will be opened by the Mt. Diablo YMCA tomorrow at Dewing Lane and Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, and across from the Park and Shop Shopping Center, Concord.

Several hundred Douglas and white fir trees from Oregon will be available.

Community Must Make Decision, Residents Told

"We have reached a point of decision," Albert Anacario told a group of civic leaders Monday night at the Lafayette Community Center.

The group was gathered at a special meeting to form an advisory council for the Lafayette Community Center, Inc., as the first step of a planned fund raising program under professional leadership.

Anacario who spoke on the present status of the center told those assembled that the Lafayette Community Center, Inc., was created to establish a facility for the community.

"WE NOW own our land and plans have been prepared for an adequate center, it is up to the community to give us direction," Anacario, a member of the center's board of directors, concluded.

The program Monday night was opened by Ralph Miller, a director, who gave the group a brief background summary of the center. Anacario spoke next on the center's present status and J. P. Van Overveen, board president, discussed future plans.

Forty-one people, representing 18 Lafayette organizations, were present. Each representative was given a printed form, endorsing the project and financial campaign to raise funds for the new center building.

These endorsements will be presented to the various organizations for signature, designating approval of the plans. Van Overveen said the board hoped all endorsements would be returned by January 1, with January 10 set as a deadline.

THOSE organizations signing the endorsements will form the advisory council.

Van Overveen told the group that a professional campaign consultant had been retained to conduct the campaign for funds. He is assured that the funds needed to build the new center will be forthcoming.

Step by step, month by month, the program has been outlined, to be climaxed with a victory dinner in June. However, Van Overveen pointed out that the backing of every resident of Lafayette is needed; that where the campaign leads is up to the dictates of the community.

Organizations represented at the meeting and their delegates are Chamber of Commerce, Jack Hageman; Contra Costa Realtors, J. N. Smith; Acalanes High School Student Body, Bob Ingham.

ACALANES Parents Club, Ted Clark; Lafayette Improvement Association, William Chilcote; Rotary, Leo H. Shell; Lafayette Women's Club, Vivian Peglow; Lafayette Design Project, Grace Blackwood; Soroptimist, Juanita Howard; Contra Costa Volunteers, Alice Stern; Lafayette Suburban Women, Carol Butler; Stanley School Parents Club, Mrs. William Jeffrey.

Diablo Girl Scouts, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Liddle; Acalanes Lodge, AF&M, Campbell McPhail; Lafayette Kiwanis, Tone Eberle; YMCA, John Price; Campfire Girls, Betty Krueger;

School Enrollments Up 50,000

Contra Costa County schools this fall gained 5055 students over a decade of growth averaging 5000 annually.

The school population is now 118,946 in all grades, kindergarten through junior college.

This compares with 68,872 when the decade began. While the 10-year growth has been impressive, it falls short of that of the preceding decade and of 1951 itself, the peak year of post-World War II growth, from which both numerical and annual rates of increase have gradually receded.

Numerical growth that year was 7401 and the rate of increase over the previous year, 12 per cent.

In contrast, this year's gain over 1960 was four per cent.

Another marked change was an about-face in the relation of elementary growth to high school, said County Superintendent Floyd Marchus.

Whereas in 1951, the elementary level increased 14 per cent and the secondary, 10.5 per cent, the current rates are two and five-tenths per cent elementary growth and seven per cent secondary.

Elementary enrollment is 82,138, up 1750. Enrollment in junior and senior high schools is 41,909, up 2680.

A switch occurred also in junior college enrollment. In 1951 with young men drained off by which both numerical and annual rates of increase have gradually receded.

But, this fall the district registered a nearly 15 per cent increase over a year ago, enrolling 4899.

Its growth was exceeded only by that of one other of the 32 school districts.

Moraga experienced a 30 per cent gain, attaining a total of 470 students. Moraga began the 1950's with 39 students but since 1955 has been the top growth area in the county because of intensive residential development.

Other high rates of growth occurred at the high school level. Mt. Diablo Unified grades 7-12 and the San Ramon Valley Union High School District each experienced increases of 11 per cent and Acalanes Union High School District, 10 per cent.

Seven of the school districts lost enrollment. Among them was Richmond City, which decreased one per cent, although Richmond Union High School District, embracing a larger area, gained nearly four per cent.

I Started With A Rush...

It's been a long day at the office, but before going home for dinner I'm going to pick out some gifts which have to be mailed pronto to get there in time. Guess I'll head for Broadway and get it over with.

It seems like every year I'm in a big rush—dash into a store, pick out something, dash out, somehow get it wrapped and mailed. Usually it's the Broadway Shopping Center. I get a good selection there.

Same deal, this year, I figure. I know what I want, so I make a bee-line for the wallet counter. next Lingerie, and that's it.

I PAW quickly through the wallets. My dad likes alligator. "Take your time, sir. We're not closing until 9 tonight," she says.

She's smiling it up, so I relax. I started to say you must be kidding, but decided not to. I took a look around.

The other customers were moving in a hurry about the store, some scowling at small pieces of paper — lists I suppose. But most of them were smiling — at nobody in particular. Just smiling.

"Okay, Scrooge," I told myself. "All you need is Tiny Tim to come through the door shouting 'Merry Christmas.'"

I check the door. No Tiny Tim, but lots of healthy looking kids, looking pretty surprised at everything. I remember that feeling.

Come on. Let's try another store and get it over with.

On the sidewalk, three young girls race past, bells tied to their shoelaces, jingling. I almost get run over.

A PRETTY genuine-looking Santa walks past, ho, ho, ho'ing, and a flock of little kids are after that candy cane he's handing out. Kids everywhere! They must be taking over!

Not quite. There are adults behind all those colored packages which are floating my way down the street. And those store windows come close to the kind you see on Christmas cards. I notice colors at Christmas I don't notice at any other time. Blue ribbons, red candles, gold goblets, white trees, and it looks warm behind those windows.

I was here only a few days ago, and I didn't see all these new items. They must have changed everything and got a lot of new stuff in.

I'll be okay if I steer clear of those toy counters — the little kids go wild over those space toys.

MOST PEOPLE, it looks like, are buying the kind of stuff they know will be needed. That gal over there is fascinated by that French phone, it must cost about $30. But it looks now like she's going to pick out a new jacket for someone, her hubby that ring says.

I think I'll see if that special post office is still open in front of the Lucky Store. Still is, right next to that special booth where you can have a letter sent from you to your kids, with a postmark of Santa Claus on it. Some deal.

Here's something pasted to a window. It's called Santa's Christmas Chart. Let's see — 25 cents at Contra Costa Stationers. It's a calendar, and gold stars can be glued in the spaces after "Be good," "Put Toys Away," "Come When Called" and others like that. My wife would like that — those kids have been murder the last few days.

SAY, THE after-dinner crowd is here, and I haven't even eaten.

I should have called home. If I can get home now in a hurry and talk my way out of this jam, I'll bring the whole family into coming back here tonight.

We may as well do it right this year.

Next Transit Hearing Is Dec. 21

A second public hearing on the Bay Area Rapid Transit District plans will be held December 21 by the county board of supervisors. The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. in the Hall of Records.

The three-hour hearing held November 30 ended with expressions of approval of the new Mt. Diablo Freeway routing for transit lines from Lafayette to Walnut Creek, replacing the original plans for routing through Sun Valley.

$25,000 Contract Given For Golf Club Road Work

Supervisor Thomas J. Coll of Supervisorial District 3 announced today that the Board of Supervisors awarded a contract for the improvements of Golf Club Road between Grayson Creek and the Contra Costa Canal to Gallagher and Burk of Walnut Creek.

The company submitted a bid of $25,000, the lowest of eight bids received.

The project consists of pavement widening including curbs, gutters and drainage improvements along the south side adjacent to the Contra Costa Junior College.

The cost of the improvements is being shared by the junior college district and Contra Costa County.

THE DISTRICT'S portion of the work consists of the installation of curbs, gutters, longitudinal drainage facilities and providing the necessary right of way.

The estimated cost of construction is $28,740.

The Public Works Department has elected to use alternate bids to reduce construction costs.

Construction will be inspected by the Public Works Department, Victor W. Sauer, director.

Chamber To Elect 6 Directors

Ballots for the election of six directors to the board of directors for the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce have been returned to the committee and are currently being counted.

Jack Hageman, chamber president, was unable to announce the results before The Sun went to press late yesterday.

Eleven nominees for the board are Anton Eberle, realtor; Brad Johanson, Baby News; Terry E. Long, Lafayette Toyland; Hal Marty, manager, Lafayette Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company; John R. Moore, M.D.; R. H. Mossman, Hillside Motel; Jack Murray, realtor; C. L. "Verne" Odegard, Pacific Gas & Electric; Jack Pedder, insurance broker and Leo Schell, Schell, Martin, engineers.

Santa's Sleigh Thrills Thousands of Children

Santa Claus' giant sleigh carried thousands of boys and girls in the Broadway Shopping Center last week. The 40-foot sleigh, covered with lights and led by mechanical prancing reindeer, proved to be one of the biggest holiday hits in years.

Sponsored by the Broadway Merchants Association, the sleigh with Santa aboard, also visited several areas during its four-day stay in this area.

Children were given special sleigh rides at the Edgar Cottage in the county juvenile hall, at St. Michael and All Angels Church, Concord, at Shadelands Ranch and at Hillside Covenant Church, Walnut Creek.

Rides were also given to the young people of the Lynn Training Center for Retarded Children.

The sleigh was operated by Santa's Sleighs, Inc., Columbus, Nebraska.

Here Are Suggestions For Family Movie Fare

Here again, as a Sun service to its readers, are recommendations for movie fare for your family as prepared by the Film Estimate Board of National Organizations. Abbreviations are as follows: A—adults; MY—mature young people; Y—young people; F—family and C—children unaccompanied by adults.

BACK STREET—A

Fannie Hurst's novel has been glamorized, modernized and internationalized in its third appearance as a motion picture. Susan Hayward is chic and assured, a far cry from Miss Hurst's little seamstress condemned to a lonely lifetime of insecurity on the hidden "back street" of a married man's life.

BRIDGE TO THE SUN—A-MY-Y

Gwen Terasaki's autobiographical account of the marriage of a small town belle from Tennessee to a Japanese diplomat has made a praiseworthy and touching film.

CLAUDELE INGLISH—A

This is the story of a nice girl who resorts abruptly to promiscuity and gold-digging after being jilted by her schoolboy sweetheart. The family cabin and the farming country around it have a drabness that points up the situation.

DR. BLOOD'S COFFIN—A

Anyone attracted by the title of this British melodrama will not be disappointed by the horror story it tells.

EVERYTHING'S DUCKY—F

Mickey Rooney and Buddy Hackett as a couple of nitwit electricians at a Navy rocket-launching site in the desert become guardians of a duck, the hero of this farce. It reaches its funniest moments when the duck is on the screen.

GREYFRIAR'S BOBBY—F-C

Edinburgh honored a real dog nearly a century ago for extraordinary faithfulness to his dead master. In this charming Disney retelling of the story, he is played by a clever Skye terrier, a mop-haired little fellow with wistful eyes, a button nose and a constantly wagging tail.

THE PIT AND THE PENDULUM—A-MY

Mystery and murder follow each other in this very free adaptation of Poe's classic tale.

A THUNDER OF DRUMS—A-MY

The well produced western has vigor and excitement that reaches its heights in the Indian raids and a big fight at the close. Settings, color and attention to detail are excellent.

THE TRUNK—A

The complicated plot of this little British melodrama starts off when a girl accidentally shoots an old flame of her husband's who is trying to make trouble between the newly-married pair. A surprise ending brings the shaky story to a neat and satisfying close.

McCunn Says Textbooks Lean Toward Socialism

Some California school textbooks "definitely lean toward Socialism" and "Socialism is but one step from Communism," Dr. Drummond J. McCunn, superintendent of the Contra Costa Junior College District, declared at a San Francisco press conference last week.

McCunn's comments came during the annual conference of the California Association of School Administrators, which he headed as president in 1954, and preceded his appearance as a principal speaker on the subject, "Teaching About Communism in Our Schools," a panel discussion.

"We have the liberty under California law to teach about Socialism, but not to advocate it," McCunn declared. He went on to quote from a recent speech by Nikita Khrushchev in which the Russian premier predicted the eventual submersion of the United States by Communism "through small and frequent doses of Socialism."

WHEN McCUNN urged that the aid of such organizations as the American Bar Association, chambers of commerce, parent-teacher associations, and the American Legion be enlisted in fighting what he termed the Communist conspiracy, he was asked if he would include the right-wing John Birch Society.

"Let's pin it down to one point, the Communist conspiracy," McCunn replied. "I do not belong to the John Birch Society, but if the society stands for what Birch stood for during his short lifetime I think we should commend them."

"They stand for exposing the Communist conspiracy and I would commend them on their program, as I would commend all organizations with a like program. We should not turn our back on any group out to fight Communism."

He emphasized that he did not endorse the society, "nor any other organization."

In response to another question, McCunn said he saw no objection to John Birchers teaching in the nation's schools, and that he knew of none in the junior college district.

McCUNN criticized a recently published two-volume history of the United States written by Michael Kraus and Foster Dulles, professors of history at New York City College and Ohio State University, respectively, for what he described as a "technique of omission" and a "deluding process" in failing to include direct quotations of his-institutions, and it follows — because I think we can consider education a respectable institution — that they have infiltrated our schools."

OF THE United Nations, McCunn said that in his opinion "some of its related agencies are moving away from the UN and are definitely slanted toward worldwide education." He cited UNICEF as an example of an agency advocating "one world, one court, one tax, one education system."

"I believe in education in all forms, including world government," he continued, "but not until we have laid a firm foundation in Americanism. We know that world citizenship is being advocated and taught in some elementary schools of California as far down as the first grade—before American ideals are taught."

"Education in world citizenship should not start before the sixth grade, and only after a good foundation has been laid in American government."

Elementary Districts Agree on These Points

J. Gordon Ainsworth, chairman of the Orinda Elementary School District Board of Trustees, presented the following letter at the meeting of the County Committee on School District Reorganization November 30.

It was signed by representatives of each elementary board in the Alacanes area.

DURING the 60 days since the last meeting of this committee on the unification of the elementary schools and high schools within the boundaries of the Alacanes Union High School District, a great many discussions have been held by the individual boards, both at board meetings and at meetings with parents and parent groups.

Out of these discussions has come a degree of unanimity among the elementary school districts which we believe should carry great weight with this committee tonight. These are the things on which there appears to be a unanimity of opinion:

1. All districts support the principle of unification as being the most desirable form of school district organization for these districts.

2. All elementary districts reject the Odell and Associates' recommendation of total unification of the Alacanes High School area.

3. ALL elementary school districts favor a program of vertical unification for the high school and elementary school districts involved.

Therefore, as the voting delegate on the augmented committee from the Orinda Elementary School District, I propose to make the following motion:

Who's That Why It's Good Old St. Nick!

Jolly old St. Nick is strolling about the Broadway Shopping Center these days, talking with the youngsters, and bestowing candy canes.

Santa's arrival was arranged by the Broadway Merchants Association.

He can be seen during the day and during evenings until Christmas, said B. K. Horne, association chairman.

County Gets $31,500 for Welfare Effort

A special allocation of $31,500 in state funds is being made to Contra Costa County for its participation in a new program seeking improvement of California's public welfare program.

Alameda County is receiving $55,500.

The program, approved by the 1961 state legislature, will be aimed at cutting welfare costs by restoring aid recipients to self-support and finding more efficient administrative procedures.

Your Garden

Nice Potted House Plants Make Good Gifts

Finding the right gift for the right person is always a problem—unless you're shopping for a gardener. In that case you can never go wrong in buying something for his garden. A plant, a garden book, a container (preferably with a plant in it), a gadget—these are all things that will gladden the gardener's heart on Christmas morning.

Even your non-gardening friends will appreciate a nicely potted house plant under their tree. It doesn't take a green thumb to enjoy a blooming azalea, cyclamen, chrysanthemum or African violet. All these and others can be bought in bloom from local nurseries, according to the California Association of Nurserymen.

FOR THE serious gardener, something big and showy is in order—a bloom-heavy camellia, perhaps, or a rhododendron. The latter won't bloom until spring, but it's a gift to make any gardener jump for joy. On the other hand, a check with your friend's spouse might indicate that certain other shrubs are closer to the perfect gift.

Possibly some accent shrubs such as dwarf citrus or bamboo for planting in a container on the deck or at the front door.

The owner of a newly built house will appreciate the gift of a choice young tree. Flowering trees, especially, are likely to please—a flowering crabapple or dogwood, or maybe a saucer magnolia.

In the line of garden gadgetry, there are so many things that many gardeners always need but never get around to buying for themselves. Some we know are forever borrowing a neighbor's electric hedge clippers, or his spray tank or his garden cart to haul something in.

AS FOR books, a pruning guide can be mighty handy and timely, too, since the season when pruning should begin is already with us. And while you're at it, you might make yourself the same gift. Pruning is one of gardening's most important skills and it could stand far more study than most people have given it.

Nowadays it isn't necessary to buy the actual plant and deliver it to the door. CAN nurseries have a beautiful selection of combination gift certificate-gift card for every occasion.

These Hints Will Help Dec. Gardener

Some varieties of fruit trees are subject to leaf curl unless sprayed now and again in February. Your nurseryman can recommend a spray.

The cool season vegetable garden can be planted still; nurseries usually have small plants of leaf and heading vegetable for transplanting in your garden.

The new roses should be at all nurseries in time for Christmas. They make wonderful gifts. Combination gift certificate-gift cards are available at CAN nurseries.

The tall garden lilies should be planted now. Spring-blooming bulbs may still be set out if you can still find the bulbs.

Secure canes of climbing roses against possible trouble from strong winds this winter.

Premiere of 'El Cid' Will Benefit Center

"El Cid," Samuel Bronston's motion picture starring Charlton Heston and Sophia Loren, will open an exclusive Northern California roadshow engagement at the Alexandria Theatre in San Francisco with a benefit premiere December 20, sponsored by the Volunteers Auxiliary of the Youth Guidance Center.

The film deals with the life of Rodrigo Diaz de Bivar, a young courageous Spanish nobleman who stemmed the Moorish invasion of Europe.

Director Anthony Mann filmed the production in color on location in Spain. Oscar-winning Robert Krasker ("Henry V," "Romeo and Juliet," etc.) was director of photography, and the international cast includes besides Heston and Sophia Loren such actors as Raf Vallone, Genevieve Page, John Fraser, Hurd Hatfield and Herbert Lom.

Performances will be nightly at 8:30 p.m. (except Sundays at 7 p.m.), with matinees Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays at 2:30 p.m. Tickets may be ordered by mail; at any Greyhound agencies; at Sears Roebuck or any United California theatres in this area.

No Evening Shopping on Two Holidays

Stores in Broadway Shopping Center will be open Tuesday, the day after Christmas, instead of the usual Monday night late hours that week.

The same will apply the following week, so the late hours will be Tuesday night, January 2, instead of January 1, which is New Year's Day, according to B. K. Horne, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

SUN want ads appear in five papers for one bargain price.

PH Swimmers
In Top Five of Ten AAU Events

Pleasant Hill Swim Club members placed among the nation's top five swimmers in 10 events according to tabulations released recently by Mrs. Beth Kaufman, chairman of the Age Group Swimming Program for the Amateur Athletic Association.

Holders of the five best times for each event for every age group are regarded as National Age Group Swimming Champions of the AAU.

Camille Juarez placed in three different events to top the local swimmers.

In the final tabulation she was third in the 55-yard butterfly; fifth in the 55-yard backstroke (long course), and fifth in the 200-yard individual medley.

Miss Juarez was awarded the Pleasant Hill Swim Club trophy as "Girl Swimmer of the Year" in September.

SHE SWAM in the 10 and under age group during the past summer.

In the same class, Nikki Jelonek was rated the third best swimmer in the 25-yard freestyle.

Bruce Phillips was the fifth choice in the 25-yard freestyle (short course) event for 10 and under boys. Phillips was the local club's "Boy Swimmer of the Year."

In the 11-12 year old class, Nora Bardsley was placed fifth in the 100-meter breaststroke for the short course.

Four relay teams for the Swim Club also were ranked among the nation's best in their respective classes.

Center Society Has New Community Units

The Contra Costa Branch of the American Cancer Society has announced the formation of four new local community units, to serve Concord, Pacheco, Martinez and Pleasant Hill.

"This expansion of the society's services will enable us to make life-saving information more easily available to everyone," said Dr. Jonas E. Schreider, president of the county branch.

Local units will help branch headquarters to distribute educational literature, arrange for film showings, receive memorial gifts, make referrals for service cases and otherwise meet the specific service needs of each community through the year.

Concord unit chairman is Mrs. J. Dougherty, 500 Johnson Drive. Pacheco unit chairman is Mrs. Roger Prentice, 198 Center Street. Martinez unit chairman is Mrs. Robert F. Fountain, 620 Linden Lane.

Pleasant Hill unit chairman is Mrs. William Gordon, 718 Cumberland Drive.

Formation of these units brings to 16 the number of community units established by the American Cancer Society in Contra Costa County.

Others are active in Pittsburg, Port Chicago, Richmond, El Sobrante, El Cerrito, San Pablo, Pinole, Rodeo, Antioch, Brentwood, Bethel Island and Oakley.
